Thank you for supporting LSE through the Annual Fund

The LSE Annual Fund supports priority projects which help students in financial need, enhance the student experience and improve School life. By making a gift to the Annual Fund today you are making a valuable investment in the future of LSE.

THE IMPACT OF YOUR GIFT

Philanthropy is the cornerstone upon which LSE was built. Your gift to the LSE Annual Fund is a continuation of this tradition and ensures that current and future generations can experience the lasting legacy of an LSE education. Your gift provides resources where they are most needed at LSE.

When you join fellow alumni and friends of the School in donating an unrestricted gift to the Annual Fund, you underpin projects that:

- provide financial assistance to talented students
- attract world class academics
- enhance the student experience
- engage the wider world in addressing the challenges of our times
- maintain LSE's international reputation for excellence in the social sciences
- create sustainable facilities and a state of the art campus
- maintain LSE's international reputation for excellence in the social sciences.

TAX EFFICIENT GIVING

The German Friends of LSE is a registered association (e.V.), through which alumni and friends living in Germany can make tax efficient gifts to the LSE Annual Fund.

Tax efficient donations can be made by cheque or an electronic funds transfer only. Cheques should be made payable to German Friends of LSE and sent to the Freunde der London School of Economics and Political Science e.V.

THE 1895 SOCIETY – LEADERSHIP GIVING AT LSE

The 1895 Society comprises LSE's leadership giving circles – recognising through bespoke stewardship programmes the generosity of alumni and friends. Leadership giving is structured in the following circles:

Shaw Circle – €1,400-6,999 – replacing the Director's Circle

Wallas Circle – €7,000-13,999 – replacing the Chairman's Circle

Webb Circle – €14,000+ – a new tier of unrestricted leadership giving

1895 Society

Data protection

All data is held securely by LSE and is treated confidentially in accordance with the 1998 Data Protection Act. Data is not disclosed to external organisations other than agents contracted by the School directly for purposes benefiting the School or its alumni. Data is available to academic and administrative departments and recognised Alumni Association groups and is used for a range of alumni activities and to encourage non-financial and financial support for the School including fundraising programmes. If you do not wish your information to be used in this way, please contact LSE Advancement: Advancement.Data.Entry@lse.ac.uk
