WELCOME

Everyone is welcome to attend LSE's public events, where some of the most influential figures in the social sciences can be heard.

This term we are delighted to be hosting in-person events again and we look forward to welcoming you back to our campus.

Most events will also continue to be streamed live online, allowing audiences across the world to tune in and join the global debate at LSE.

Browse this leaflet to find out what's on this term. All events are free unless a price is given, and all listings are correct at the time of going to print. We hope to have confirmed all venues by late September. To check the location, registration requirements and full details for each event, head to lse.ac.uk/events

Sign up to our e-newsletter to be the first to know about newly announced events at lse.ac.uk/events/signup

Podcasts and videos of most LSE events are available online at lse.ac.uk/lse-player

Alan Revel, Head of Events

Accessibility and special requirements

LSE aims to ensure equal access to these public events. The majority of venues are wheelchair accessible. Wheelchair spaces should be reserved in advance of the event.

The larger venues are fitted with infrared hearing support systems.

Please contact events@lse.ac.uk in advance of the event you plan to attend so that arrangements, where possible, can be made. For more information visit lse.ac.uk/events

AccessAble have produced detailed access guides to the LSE campus and residences, and route maps between key locations.

These are available at lse.ac.uk/AccessAble

Parking for disabled badge holders

Visit the Westminster City Council website to find the nearest Blue Badge parking bays to LSE.
