

Undergraduate programmes summary of actions taken to address matters raised at SSLC meetings

Term	Matter raised	Action
Lent term 2016-17	HY300 students felt unprepared for completing their dissertation.	Mr Motadel is running a Dissertation Café with grant funding received from TDLF to organise a special workshop for third year students at the writing up stage of their dissertation.
Michaelmas term 2016-17	HY300 students felt that the third-year Michaelmas Term workshop did not add much to what they had covered in the second-year workshops.	An additional HY300 session for third-year students with Professor Casey was arranged in the same term.
Michaelmas term 2016-17	Exam feedback was too generic and students would have benefitted from more detailed feedback; it was requested that examiners be more detailed in their comments.	Examination mark/feedback form re-designed to include a 'suggestions for improvement' section, to address the desire for more detailed and targeted feedback.
Michaelmas term 2016-17	Last year's first-year students had asked for clearer signalling and better promotion of induction events.	This year's first-year cohort reported that Registration was straight forward and induction events well organised.
Lent term 2015- 16	India course not available.	Professor Stevenson arranged for interested IH students to take an outside Britain and India course with SOAS.
Lent term 2015- 16	Department undergraduate facilities in Sardinia House not available at weekends.	Ms Minter checked with Security and it is not possible to keep the basement open for students in Sardinia House due to health and safety. There are study spaces in NAB, 32 Lif, Saw Swee Hock building, the Old Building and Library.
Michaelmas term 2015-16	Students would like more detail in their exam feedback, including marks for each question and sight of their scripts.	Marks for individual questions are now disclosed. The Exam Board Chair asked that examiners' comments be as full and specific as possible.

Michaelmas term 2015-16	Scheduling of teaching on Wednesday afternoons	Staff reminded that Wednesday afternoons are protected for 2016/17 timetabling cycle.
