LSEE Workshop on Economics of the Western Balkans

24–25 June 2019
LSE, London

LSEE, the Research unit on South Eastern Europe at the London School of Economics, is organising a Research Workshop on the Economics of the Western Balkans, to be held on 24–25 June 2019 at the LSE. The workshop aims to facilitate the exchange of knowledge and ideas between scholars currently undertaking research on the Western Balkan economies.

Scholars in all stages of career as well as both theoretical and empirical contributions across all fields of economics are highly welcome. Each paper will be allocated up to 45 minutes, to be divided between the presentation and a discussion.

Please submit extended abstracts or full papers not later than April 1, 2019 to i.zilic@lse.ac.uk. Notifications about acceptance will be sent by April 10, 2019. We offer the possibility of publishing selected contributions in the LSEE Discussion Papers on South Eastern Europe. There is no workshop fee, but participants are expected to cover their own travel and accommodation.

Local organisers are Vassilis Monastiriotis and Ivan Zilic.
