

Class profile

International diversity is a key feature of studying at LSE. The MSc Accounting, Organisations and Institutions programme aims to attract students from all around the world.

Country of origin

The class of 2021/22 come from the following countries:

- |                            |            |             |              |            |
|----------------------------|------------|-------------|--------------|------------|
| • United States of America | • Colombia | • India     | • Kazakhstan | • Nigeria  |
| • UK                       | • Croatia  | • Indonesia | • Macao      | • Pakistan |
| • China                    | • Finland  | • Italy     | • Malaysia   | • Sweden   |
|                            | • France   | • Japan     | • Nepal      | • Taiwan   |
|                            | • Germany  | • Jordan    |              |            |

Gender

Age range

Undergraduate degree

Data collected from 2021/22 class.