

2nd Workshop for Early Career Women in Economic Geography and Spatial Economics

Keynote speakers

Maryann P. Feldman
Arizona State University

Camille Hémet
Université Paris 1 Panthéon-
Sorbonne & Paris School of Economics

The Department of Geography and Environment at LSE is pleased to host the 2nd Workshop for Early Career Women in Economic Geography and Spatial Economics (WECW-EGSE) on 16–17 March 2026. The workshop will take place in person on the London School of Economics and Political Science campus in London.

This two-day workshop aims to promote women-led research by bringing together female scholars working in Economic Geography and Spatial Economics. It is open to advanced PhD students, fellows, and postdoctoral researchers. Participants will have the opportunity to present their work, receive constructive feedback from a departmental faculty discussant, and connect with other promising scholars.

Please submit your paper or extended abstract to s.bagagli@lse.ac.uk and e.renzullo@lse.ac.uk by 15 January 2026. Priority will be given to complete papers. Submissions will be reviewed by a scientific committee of faculty members from the department.

How to apply:

When submitting your work:

- Use "WECW-EGSE" as the email subject line.
- Specify your current position in the email.

Applicants will be notified of their acceptance by the end of January. No registration fees are required.

Organizers: Sara Bagagli and Elena Renzullo

Scientific committee: Sara Bagagli, Duygu Buyukyazici, Erica Pani, Elena Renzullo, Alexandra Sandu, Ana Varela-Varela

Workshop funded by a Re-Generate Grant by the Department of Geography and Environment (LSE)