

LIS Remote Secured Data Access Application

Personal information

Name

First Name

Last Name

Title

Country of residence

Name of institute/organization

Address of institute/organization

Email

example@example.com

Department / Research Group

Research Status

Information on the visit

Proposed period and Access Facility

From

Day Month Year

To

Month Day Year

Please choose from the available access locations below (multiple choices are possible)

LSE-International Inequality Institute (III) Access point (Only available for the III affiliates)
SafePod/SafePoint Network Locations

Data Access and Technical Details

Are you a LIS user? Note: the application will not be considered if you are not registered as a LISSY user

Yes

No

Which Database(s) to access

LIS

LWS

ERFLIS

Preferred statistical package

R

STATA

SPSS

Please indicate your level of experience using this package?

None

Basic

Intermediate

Advanced

basic = using commands through drop-down menu, almost no programming

intermediate = feels comfortable using syntax and writing code

advanced = masters complex programming tools such as looping / macro / object

Project of the visit

Individual or joint project

In case of joint project, please provide the name(s) and affiliation(s) of the other applicant(s)

Title of project (with acronym if applicable)

Short description of project/proposal (max. 500 words)

Main goals of visit (max. 300 words)

Proposed output and dissemination activities (e.g. working paper, conference presentation, publications, ...)

Other Documents

Please attach your CV (including any relevant publications) to this application. In the case of a joint proposal, the role of each participant should be defined and each applicant's Curriculum Vitae should be attached as well.

Letter of Support

Student applicants will need a letter of support from their supervisor or a professor who has had sufficient opportunity to assess the individual's potential. The letter of support together with all other material should be sent directly to the e-mail address below.

Signature and date

Submit your application to iii.lis@lse.ac.uk