

Dear ,

Congratulations on your offer from the Department of Social Policy! We're delighted that you're interested in joining us this September, and look forward to sharing more about the department and LSE with you in the coming weeks.

We have an international reputation for excellence. The latest 2026 Complete University Guide and 2025 QS University World Rankings placed us first in the UK and seventh in the world respectively, and the latest Research Excellence Framework \(REF 2021\) ranked the department #1 in the country for world-leading and internationally excellent research.

Next steps and reminders

Here are your most important tasks and to-dos right now.

- If you have an unconditional offer, you can confirm your place now. If your offer is conditional, you should pick a firm choice and an insurance choice before the UCAS reply deadline.
- Familiarise yourself with the information on the programme webpage for your specific programme:
 - BSc International Social and Public Policy
 - BSc International Social and Public Policy with Economics
 - BSc International Social and Public Policy with Politics
- Browse our department webpage, LSE LIFE, Student Services Centre, and funding information for more insight into life at LSE.
- Follow us on social media to get updates on all things Social Policy!

Future editions of the newsletter

We'll be in touch with a few more emails and activities to prep you for your studies, and for your life at LSE and in London! You can expect the following topics:

April: My department (and a welcome from your Programme Director)

May: My department and my community

July: My skills and opportunities

August: My support and my education

September: Welcome 2026!

In the meantime, if you have any questions, feel free to reach out at socialpolicy.ug@lse.ac.uk. We look forward to connecting with you soon!

Best wishes,

The Department of Social Policy
