

Day one | Monday 15 April

9.00-9.45	Registration and Welcome Coffee
	Sheikh Zayed Theatre	Alumni Theatre	CKK.1.04	CKK.1.07	CKK.1.09	CKK.1.14	CKK.1.15	CKK.2.08	CKK.2.13	CKK.2.14	CKK.2.16	CKK.2.18
9.45-11.15	Climate change changes everything... except sociology?	Women, work, and politics	Structures of capitalism	Researching culture from multiple perspectives	New directions in class theory	Right-wing and populist politics	More than human sociology	Elite Reproduction	Researching structural inequalities	Social violence: from speech acts to militarism	Nationalism	Mobility and inequality
11.15-11.45	Coffee Break
11.45-12.00	BJS Editors Welcome
12:00-1:00	Keynote Ben Ansell: Who wants wealth taxes?
1.00-1.45	Lunch
1.45-3.15	Author meets critic: Dan Evans		Inequalities in the CCIs	Economic sociology	Conceptualising elites	Interrogating economic elites	Environmental dispositions	Beliefs, values and social theory	Elided histories and identities	Power and resistance	Whiteness and anti-Blackness	Mechanisms of mobility
3.15-3.45	Coffee Break
3.45-5.15	Global and transnational approaches to race and racism	Citizenship and political participation	Environmental movements	New directions in cultural consumption	Work/employment	Morality and inequality	Students, schools, and educational outcomes	Memory and historical sociology	Social mobility: education and aspiration	Critiques of racialisation	Policy and the third sector	Diversity among elites
5.30-6.30	Keynote Claire Alexander: Raceing the academy: sociology in treacherous times
6.30-8.00	Evening Reception
8.30-10.30	Evening River Cruise (please note this is a ticketed event)

Day two | Tuesday 16 April

9.00-9.30	Welcome coffee
	Sheikh Zayed Theatre	Alumni Theatre	CKK.1.04	CKK.1.07	CKK.1.09	CKK.1.14	CKK.1.15	CKK.2.08	CKK.2.13	CKK.2.14	CKK.2.16	CKK.2.18
9.30-11.00	Author meets critic: Jordanna Matlon		The racialised university	New currents in the sociology of taste	Debt, credit, and inequality	Sociology beyond sociologists	Social change and social movements	Intersections of place and class	Citizenship and non citizenship	Kinship, welfare states, and markets	New directions in social theory	Political economy of exclusion
11.00-11.30	Coffee break
11.30-1.00		Elites-within-elites	Climate change: new theoretical directions	Class and politics	Social movements	Solidarity	Race, coloniality and education	Digital technologies: method and data	Artistic sociology	Global citizenship	Legitimizing meritocracy	Studying Children
1.00-1.45	Lunch
1.45-2.45	Keynote Eric Klinenberg: 2020: A reckoning
2.45-3.15	Coffee break
3.15-4.45	The political economy of health		Action in the face of precarity and deprivation	(Im)migration	Symbolic inequalities: neighbourhoods and occupations	Pandemic provocations	Understanding (im)mobility	Palestinian justice	Social mobility	Qualitative methodology	Forms of capital	Inequality and the university
4.45	Close

