

Ziang Liu

London School of Economics and Political Science

Department of Economic History
Houghton Street, London WC2A 2AE
z.liu36@lse.ac.uk

EDUCATION

London School of Economics and Political Science

2017 – present

PhD candidate in Economic History

- Thesis topic: Fiscal monetisation and re-quantification in China between the 15th to 19th century
- Thesis supervisors: Professor Oliver Volckart (LSE), Professor Mary Morgan (LSE)
- Academic fields of interest: Fiscal monetisation in the late imperial China; State Capacity fiscal history; Chinese economic history; History of quantification

London School of Economics and Political Science

2016 – 2017

MSc Economic History

- Dissertation title: Unable or Unwilling to tax? China's Fiscal Capacity in the Perspective of Fiscal Elasticity, 1661 and 1849

Coventry University

2013 – 2016

BA (Hons) Financial Economics

- Graduated with First Class degree.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

London School of Economics and Political Science

09.2017 – 06.2020

Graduate Teaching Assistant

- Delivered the seminar courses "Business and Economic Performance since 1945: Britain in International Context" to undergraduate students.

Zhongwan International Foreign Language School

08.2015 – 09.2015

English tutor

- Engaged in tutoring English essay writing and reading comprehension

New Oriental

07.2014 – 09.2014

IELTS tutor

- Engaged in tutoring IELTS English speaking and reading comprehension for 16-23 years old students

Shangtushizhen Central School

02.2013 – 07.2013

Voluntary English Teacher

- Led English classes across year 3 to 6 at Central School in town and two sub-campuses in nearby villages
- Conducted home visits, communicating home education with students' parents

Languages and Skills

- Proficient in English and Chinese Mandarin (native); Basic in French
- Obtained training: LSE Graduate Teaching Assistant training in Qualitative Subjects
- Software: Stata