

Joseph Lane, FHEA

j.p.lane@lse.ac.uk

Economic History Department
London School of Economics
Houghton Street, London
WC2A 2AE, United Kingdom

RESEARCH AREAS

Historical Industrial Districts and Regional Clusters; Business and Social Networks; Innovation and Organisation of Industries; Knowledge Creation and Sharing; Economic and Business History

EDUCATION

- 2013-2017 Ph.D. in Economic History, London School of Economics
Thesis Title: 'Networks, Identity and Knowledge: The North Staffordshire Potteries, 1750-1851'
Supervisors: Prof. Mary Morgan and Dr. Gerben Bakker, Submission expected Spring 2017
- 2012 M.Sc. in Global History, London School of Economics
With Distinction
- 2012 Global Divergence Summer School, Peking University, Beijing
A – highest mark in class
- 2011 BA (Hons) in History, Nottingham Trent University
First Class

RESEARCH AND PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- Sept. 2015 – July 2016 Convenor of Graduate Seminar in Economic History, LSE
Facilitated global distribution of calls for papers to higher education institutions. Assessed and reviewed quality of submission materials and selected presenters. Chaired weekly seminars of approximately 30 participants.
- Oct. 2014 - July 2015 Postgraduate Certificate in Higher Education, LSE
Achieved status of Associate Fellow of the UK Higher Education Academy after completing assessed modules in pedagogical theory and practice, assessment. My assignments used as exemplars for following academic year.
- April – July 2014 Research Assistant to Prof. Patrick Wallis, Early Modern Apprenticeship in England, LSE
Assisted Professor Wallis in his archival research using guild and livery company records deposited in local archives; provided further assistance in identifying, recording and collating suitable sources of qualitative evidence to compliment quantitative evidence previously collected.
- April 2014 - present Research and Administrative Assistant to the Department of Economic History, LSE
I have been acting as the department's general research assistant since April 2014. In addition to locating and retrieving primary sources from various archives I have been providing administrative assistance for various members of faculty.

AWARDS AND GRANTS

- In Progress Economic History Society Initiative and Conference Fund for one day workshop on knowledge in historical industrial districts (up to £1,000)
- 2013-2017 ESRC Studentship: Fully-funded competitive studentship for Ph.D. studies at the LSE; including fees, stipend and annual research and training grant (£61,814)
- 2016 Francesca Carnevali Travel Grant awarded by the Association of Business Historians: competitive grant awarded for those presenting at annual conference (£200)

2015	Radwan Travel Fund: Competitive travel grant awarded by the LSE for attendance at World Economic History Congress in Japan (£1,080)
2015	Economic History Society Grant: Competitive grant covering attendance fees for presenters at annual conference (£265)
2014	Economic History Society Grant: Competitive funding to attend annual residential workshop (undisclosed)

PRIZES

2016	LSE Class Teacher Award for Economic History, (2015-2016 academic year)
2015	LSE Research Festival, 'Highly Commended' prize for research poster: 'Networks and Knowledge: A Potted History'

PUBLICATIONS AND SELECTED WORK IN PROGRESS

Secrets for Sale? Innovation and the Nature of Knowledge in the North Staffordshire Potteries, 1750-1851
(In preparation for submission at Enterprise & Society December 2016)

Industrial Districts and Knowledge Clusters: New Historical Perspectives

Work in progress with Chris Corker (York Management School). Presented at Management History Research Group Conference July 2016 and currently in grant application stage to run a workshop and panel at BAM Conference 2017.

CONFERENCE PAPERS AND PRESENTATIONS

Transferring Skills and Knowledge in a Craft Industry without a Guild

Teaching and Learning in Early Modern England, Conference, University of Cambridge (09/2016)

Industrial Districts and Knowledge Clusters: New Historical Perspectives

Management History Research Group Annual Conference, University of Sheffield (07/2016)

Secrets for Sale? Innovation and the Nature of Knowledge in an Early Industrial District

Corporate History Seminar, IHR, London (01/2017)

Management History Research Group Annual Conference, Kelham Island Museum, Sheffield (07/2016)

Association of Business Historians Annual Conference, Humboldt University, Berlin (05/2016)

Graduate Thesis Seminar, LSE, London (05/2016)

Institute for New Economic Thinking, Young Scholars Initiative, Webinar (02/2016)

Junior Faculty Workshop, Cass Business School, London (11/2015)

Networks and Knowledge in an Early Industrial District, The Potteries, 1750-1851

Invited to present on Industrial District panel, World Economic History Congress, Kyoto, Japan (08/2015)

Social Networks 1450-1850, Conference, University of Sheffield (07/2015)

Business History Network, University of Oxford (06/2015)

LSE Research Festival, Poster Session (05/2015)

Economic History Society Annual Conference, Poster Session (03/2015)

ESRC London Doctoral Training Centre Annual Conference, LSE (03/2015)

Economic History Society Residential Workshop, Manchester (11/2014)

The Organisation and Evolution of Firms in an Early Industrial District, 1750-1851

Management History Research Group Annual Conference, York (07/2015)

Economic and Business History Society Annual Conference, Wisconsin, USA (05/2015)

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Present	Course Lecturer, ‘The Industrial Revolution’, Economic History Department, LSE • Deliver weekly lectures for second-year module • Ensure reading list up to date and adjust content where necessary Graduate Teaching Assistant, LSE100, LSE; core interdisciplinary social science module compulsory for all undergraduate students (1,600 in current cohort) I currently teach 48 second year undergraduate students over four classes. • leading seminars and classes • provide students with support • conduct formative assessments
2014 – present	Graduate Teaching Assistant, Economic History Department, LSE • Teaching Quality Scores: Average across all metrics of 1.4 on a scale of 1=Very Good, 5=Very Poor; this is above the average for the department Courses taught: Business and Economic Performance since 1945: Britain in International Context (Sept. 2014 – July 2016) • Acted as guest lecturer for specialist topic of management and organisational capabilities – prepared all material and slides, and disseminated these to students via VLE • Led seminars for 51 students over three classes • Gave guidance on and marked formative essays and mock exam papers Undergraduate Induction Course: (September 2015 - present) • Assist in provision of induction course to 64 students • Lead small group discussions • Mark essay submissions and provide oral feedback on student presentations Dissertation in Economic History (November 2015 - present) • Assist in Dissertation Café workshops for third year undergraduate students • Organise and lead small group discussions on research ideas, sources and methodologies for dissertation topics
June 2016	Undergraduate Research Supervisor, LSE • Provided research supervision for two groups of six students over a two-week intensive interdisciplinary research project • Designed and implemented several methodology classes for the whole course cohort. • Worked closely with students, led discussions and provided input and feedback • Supervised two projects and assisted both groups in using network analysis and GIS software.

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE AND MEMBERSHIP

Referee	Enterprise & Society
Trustee	Management History Research Group
Treasurer	British Academy of Management Special Interest Group – Management & Business History
Fellow	UK Higher Education Academy
Member	British Academy of Management
	Economic History Society
	Association of Business Historians
	Economic and Business History Society
	Business History Network

REFEREES

Prof. Mary Morgan
PhD Supervisor

Economic History Department
London School of Economics
Houghton Street
London
WC2A 2AE

+44 (0) 20 7955 7081

Email: m.morgan@lse.ac.uk

Dr Gerben Bakker
PhD Supervisor

Economic History Department
London School of Economics
Houghton Street
London
WC2A 2AE

+44 (0) 20 7955 7047

Email: g.bakker@lse.ac.uk

Dr Roy Edwards
Co-Committee Member and founder of BAM
Special Interest Group

Southampton Business School
University of Southampton
Highfield
Southampton
SO17 1BJ

Email: R.A.Edwards@Soton.ac.uk