

THE ESSENCE PROJECT

ECONOMIC EVALUATION FOR ADULT SOCIAL CARE

WORKSHOPS

LONDON – 17 JULY 2019

YORK – 29 AUGUST 2019

These workshops will introduce the aims and methods of economic evaluations (such as cost-effectiveness analysis) without much technical detail, and provide illustrations. The workshops are aimed at non-economists interested in adult social care.

The workshops will also introduce the ESSENCE (Examining the economic case for a range of adult social care interventions) project, funded by the NIHR School for Social Care Research. Further details about the project can be found at <http://essenceproject.uk>.

Both workshops will start at 11.00 (with registration and refreshments from 10.30) and finish by 16.00.

To register please go to: 17 July in London <http://economicssocialcarelondon.eventbrite.co.uk>

29 August in York <http://economicssocialcareyork.eventbrite.co.uk>

Queries can be sent to Professor Martin Knapp in the Care Policy and Evaluation Centre at LSE, who will be leading the workshops, by email to: pssru@lse.ac.uk.
