

LSE-Fudan Double Degree in the Global Political Economy of China and Europe

Coursework and credit requirements

Category	Title	Semester	Credits
Basic courses (7 credits)	Chinese Government and Governance (For international students and students from Hongkong, Macao and Taiwan)	Fall	3
	Chinese political theories courses (For students from Chinese mainland)	Fall & Spring	3
	Language courses I and II	Fall & Spring	4 (2+2)
Core courses (12 credits)	Chinese Public Policy	Fall	3
	Global Public Policy	Fall	3
	Practical Research Methods in Public Policy	Fall	3
	Policy and Program Evaluation	Spring	3
	International Relations of China	Spring	3
Elective courses (12 credits)	Environmental Policy in China	Fall	2
	Global Political Economy	Fall	3
	Digital Government in China	Fall	2
	Urban Society and Public Policy	Fall	3
	Chinese Society and Social Policy	Fall	3
	Health and Social Policy	Fall	3
	Corruption and Governance in Comparative Perspective	Fall	2
	Political Economy of Sustainable Development	Spring	2
	Political Economy of China	Spring	3

Category	Title	Semester	Credits
	Social Problems and Social Innovation	Spring	3
Academic activities and social practices (3 credits)	Complete two of the following options: 1) Attending five academic lectures or giving one formal presentation in a national or international conference. 2) Being a conference volunteer, a research assistant, or an administrative assistant.	Fall & Spring	3

Notes:

*Totally students are required to take 12 credits of core course. And students can transfer one LSE course (0.5 unit) to replace one Fudan corresponding core course (3 credits) if these two courses are interchangeable;

 Students can replace no more than 12 credits of elective courses at Fudan with their LSE course units. (0.5 unit of LSE course is equivalent to 3 credits of Fudan course.)