

LSE-Fudan Double Degree in the Global Political Economy of China and Europe

Coursework and credit requirements

Category	Title	Semester	Credits
Basic courses (7 credits)	Chinese Government and Governance	Fall	3
	Chinese language I and II	Fall and Spring	4 (2+2)
Core courses (15 credits) (Option to transfer 3 credits from LSE)	Chinese Public Policy	Fall	3
	Global Political Economy	Fall	3
	Global Public Policy	Fall	3
	International Relations of China	Spring	3
	Policy and Program Evaluation	Spring	3
	Political Economy of China	Spring	3
Elective courses (12 credits) (Option to transfer some credits from LSE)	Environmental Policy of China	Fall	3
	Political Economy of Sustainable Development	Spring	2
	Elective Courses from other English program in Fudan University	Fall or Spring	Maximum 6
Academic Activities (2 credits)	Attend at least 5 academic lectures, or give a formal presentation at a national or international conference. Students should submit records and summaries of these activities to the supervisor for evaluation.		2
Social Practices (2 credits)	1. Participate in a total of at least 12 hours of teaching practice or public policy practice during the DD program period (including the first year at LSE and the second year at Fudan University), and make records and summaries  2. Practice activities include social practice (international and domestic academic conference volunteers), social welfare services, innovation and entrepreneurship, and other related activities approved by IGPP.		2

Notes:

*Totally students are required to take 15 credits core courses. And students can transfer 3 credits from LSE if a course studied at LSE is equivalent to one core course of Fudan;

**Students can also transfer their LSE course credits to replace part or all of the 12 elective course credits required by the Fudan University. (0.5 unit of LSE course is equivalent to 3 credits of Fudan course.)