

Research Funding 2022 – 2023

The Grantham Research Institute on Climate Change and the Environment would like to thank all its funders and partners for their generous support.

New Funding Secured (1 August 2022 to 31 July 2023)

During our financial year 2022-23, the Grantham Research Institute secured a total of £8,920,817 in new funding from organisations listed below.

This was comprised of £3,314,380 from from UK Research funders including Research Councils and other similar non UK Research Funding providers, £3,352,974 from charitable trusts and foundations, £1,616,686 from companies and corporate foundations, and £636,777 from other sources<sup>1</sup>.

New Funding Sources FY22-23

New Supporters (new funds committed during FY22-23)<sup>2</sup>

The Grantham Research Institute received new funding commitments from the following funders.

- Antin Infrastructure Partners
- Barclays

<sup>1</sup> Other sources includes funding from non-profits, multi-lateral development banks, NGOs and IGOs.

<sup>2</sup> This is a list of funders who agreed to be publicly acknowledged. The Institute also thanks its anonymous donors.

- Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation
- Ceres
- Children's Investment Fund Foundation
- ClimateWorks Foundation
- DLA Piper
- Energy Foundation
- European Climate Foundation
- Friends Provident Foundation
- Transition Pathway Initiative Ltd

Existing Supporters (on-going multi-year funding commitments)

The Grantham Research Institute continued to receive previously committed funds for multi-year projects from the following funders.

- Candriam
- Climate Arc
- The Grantham Foundation for the Protection of the Environment
- LSEG Foundation
- Quadrature Climate Foundation
- Transition Pathway Initiative Ltd
- Z Zurich Foundation

New awards in FY 2022/2023 from UK Research funders including Research Councils and other similar non UK Research Funding providers – £3,314,380

- UKRI Engineering and Physical Sciences Research Council (EPSRC)
- UKRI Natural Environment Research Council (NERC)
- UKRI Economic and Social Research Council (ESRC)
- LSE – internal funding
- Horizon Europe (including under UKRI guarantee)
- International Development Research Centre

Existing awards in FY 22/23 (on-going multi-year funding commitments)

- British Academy
- Department of Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy (BEIS)
- Research Council Norway

- UKRI Economic and Social Research Council (ESRC)
- UKRI Engineering and Physical Sciences Research Council (EPSRC)
- UKRI Global Challenges Research Fund (GSRF)
- UKRI Natural Environment Research Council (NERC)
- European Commission
- Leverhulme Trust
- Horizon Europe (including under UKRI guarantee)