

DISRUPTION

TRANSITION AND TRANSFORMATION

09:00	Registration and welcome coffee
09:45	Welcome address
10:00	Keynote – Professor Sarah Banet-Weiser
10:45	Coffee Break
11:00	Disrupting Politics		Respondent
	Sussex Campus on Strike: Estrangement, Resistance and Utopian Temporality	Heather McKnight University of Sussex	Professor Bart Cammaerts
	Pacification, incorporation and resistance	Christoffer Guldberg King's College London
	Fissures in Algorithmic Power	Fabian Ferrari University of Oxford
12:30	Lunch
13:30	Disrupting Boundaries		Respondent
	Re-thinking understandings of 'beneficiaries'	Madhushala Senaratne University of Sussex	Professor Lilie Chouliaraki
	Waddup my fellow yellow! The Western Chinese's translocal and transnational connection on YouTube	Chen Yang University of Westminster
	From Private Resistance to Public Protest: My Stealthy Freedom as a Photographic Public	Parnian Ferdossi Birkbeck
15:00	Coffee Break
15:30	Disrupting the Discipline		Respondent
	Data disrupting disciplines? Exploring the interface between science and technology studies and media and communications	Ville Aula LSE	Professor Lilie Chouliaraki
	Counter-Investigations: an auto-subversion for Investigative Journalism	Ruben Huerta Goldsmiths
	Using social media as method in ethnographic research	TBC	Dr Rachel O'Neill
	Personal Boundaries in Ethnographic Fieldwork	Theodora Sutton University of Oxford
17:30	Closing address
17:45	Reception		