

EMTEL Conference Programme

New Media and Everyday Life in Europe

London, 23-26 April 2003

Supported by the EU High Level Scientific Conferences Programme.
Grant HPCF-2002-00472

Hong Kong Theatre and Rooms D109, D 202 and D209
Clement House, London School of Economics and Political Science
London WC2A 2AE
United Kingdom

This document was last updated on Friday, 11 April.
For the latest version of the programme please see the Conference website at <http://emtelconference.org>

Wednesday, 23 April

12:00	Registration in the Hong Kong Theatre foyer Coffee.	Room D 109
14:00	Conference Opening and Welcome. Professor Roger Silverstone. Introduction of Conference themes, contributing fields, state of the art.	Hong Kong Theatre
14:15	First day keynote speaker: Manuel Castells. Professor of Sociology and Professor of City and Regional Planning, University of California at Berkeley. “Internet and the Network State” Questions & discussion
15:15	Coffee break
	Substantive theme 1: Inclusion and Exclusion in the Information Society	Room D 109
15:45	Plenary session 1: Exclusion Professor François Pichault, Université de Liège (Chair and discussant). Dr. Sally Wyatt, ASCoR (Amsterdam School of Communications Research), University of Amsterdam. “The digital divide: The Internet, health information and everyday life” Ms. Dorothée Durieux (LENTIC, Université de Liège). “ICT and inclusion in the everyday life of less abled people”.	Hong Kong Theatre
17:00	Parallel sessions 1: Exclusion in the information society PANEL 1: From initial intentions to perverse effects <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Els Rommes, Twente University, “I don't know how to fit it into my life'; The gap between inclusion initiatives and the personal stories of the excluded”.▪ Abel Ugba and Elaine Moriarty, Trinity College, Dublin, “New connections, Old exclusions: Ethnic Minorities in Ireland’s new Information Society”. PANEL 2: New opportunities through appropriation <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Stefan Welling, Telecommunications Research Group, University of Bremen, “Conditions and Requirements of a Milieu-Sensitive Computer-Supported Youth Work “▪ Charlotte Kira Kimby, Center for Media and Democracy in the Network Society, University of Copenhagen, “The internet's potential as a tool of empowerment in everyday life”▪ Irma Van Slooten, Univeristy of Twente, Faculty of Business, Public Administration & technology, “Women on the Web The Netherlands: a women-only strategy to encourage women to use the Internet” PANEL 3: A whole range of possible effects <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Pille Vengerfeldt, University of Tartu & Dublin City University, “Digital divide - questions beyond access”▪ Chris Paterson, University of San Francisco, “News Agency Hegemony and the Prospects for a Democratic Information Society”	Hong Kong Theatre
18:15	End of the day	Room D 202
19:15	Conference dinner @ Sofra (36 Tavistock St., Covent Garden, WC2E 7PB)	Room D 209

15:00 Parallel sessions 3 : Community and community media

PANEL 1

- Nelly Elias, Tel-Aviv University, “The role of mass media in the integration process of immigrants: A cross-cultural comparison of Russians in Israel and Germany”
- Sameera Tahira Ahmed, Leicester University, “Young Muslims and Muslim Media in Britain “

Hong
Kong
Theatre

PANEL 2

- Joanna Helcké, Loughborough University, “Magazines in Everyday Life: negotiating identity, femininity and belonging in lifestyle magazines for minority ethnic women in France and the UK”
- Eugenia Siapera, University of Amsterdam, “Multiculturalism in Cyberspace”

Room
D 202

PANEL 3

- Benedikte Brincker, University of Copenhagen, “Clash of Communities”
- Nico Carpentier, Free University of Brussels – VUB, “Bridging cultural and digital divides. Signifying everyday life, cultural diversity and participation in the on-line community Video Nation”

Room
D 209

16:15 Coffee break

Substantive theme 2: Living and Working in the Information Society.

16:30 Plenary session 4: Flexibility

Dr. Anne-Jorunn Berg, CTS, Norwegian University of Science and Technology (Chair and discussant).

Dr. Frank Helten. BIS - Berliner Institut für Sozialforschung (Berlin Institute for Social Research), “Connectivity at Home - Relaxation or Rationalization”

Dr. Thomas Berker, CTS, Norwegian University of Science and Technology. “Fascination, Use, Protection: Heavy Internet Use Revisited”.

Hong
Kong
Theatre

17:45 Parallel sessions 4: Consumption / Flexibility in the Information Society

PANEL 1: Consumption.

- Vivi Theodoropoulou, Media@LSE, London School of Economics, “Households ‘in transit’: early experiences with digital interactive television in the UK.”
- Paper TBA

Hong
Kong
Theatre

PANEL 2: Flexibility.

- Eleftheria Vasileiadou, University of Patras, “Email in the working place: Exclusion and Flexibility in Organizations”
- Frank Kleemann, Chemnitz University of Technology, “Telework: On the temporal, spatial and social disembedding of work and its consequences”
- Max Nathan, Gwendolyn Carpenter and Simon Roberts, I-Society, The Work Foundation, “Work It? An Everyday Perspective On Technology, Work And Workstyles in the UK”

Room
D 202

19:00 End of the day

Friday, 25 April

09:00	Plenary session 5: 'Domestication: revisiting and re-thinking a core concept' Professor Paschal Preston, COMTEC Dublin City University (Chair). Dr. Katie Ward, University of Sheffield. "The Bald Guy Just Ate an Orange": Working at Home and the Organisation of the Domestic Internet". Maren Hartmann, SMIT, Free University Brussels. "Beyond Domestication? The Complexity of ICT use research" Discussion by Professors Knut Sørensen and Roger Silverstone.	Hong Kong Theatre
10:15	Third day keynote speaker: Robin Mansell. Dixons Professor in New Media and the Internet, London School of Economics and Political Science. "World Summits and Information Societies: Missing Conceptual Tools for Policy" Questions & discussion
11:15	Coffee break
11:30	Parallel sessions 5: Domesticity in the Information Society PANEL 1: <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Sander Limonard, TNO-STB Department of Information and Communication, "Networked spaces and the public/private domain"▪ Eva Ikonomidis Svedmark and Annakarin Nyberg, Institution of Informatics, University of Umeå "Capturing sense making of IT-use in everyday life" PANEL 2: <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Deirdre Hynes, Dublin City University, "Digital Multimedia Consumption/Use in the Household Setting"▪ Anna Maria Russo, University of Colorado at Boulder, "New Media in Single Parent Households: Practices and Identity-Formation in Relation to the Public Discourses of Technology"	Hong Kong Theatre Room D202
12:45	Lunch at Cafe Pepe
13:45	Plenary session 6: Consumption Professor Caroline Pauwels, SMIT, Free University Brussels (Chair and discussant). Virpi Oksman, Information Society Institute, University of Tampere. "Wireless Kids - Mobile Communication Cultures of Teenagers". Maren Hartmann, SMIT, Free University Brussels. "Questioning the 'web generation' - young adults and their ICT-use in Flanders".	Hong Kong Theatre
15:00	Coffee break
15:30	Plenary session 7: Quality of life Marc Bogdanowicz, Institute for Prospective Technological Studies, EC/JRC Seville (Chair and discussant). Josephine Green, Director Trends and Strategies, Philips Design, The Netherlands. Title TBA. Dr. Yves Punie, Institute for Prospective Technological Studies, EC/JRC Seville. "A social and technological view on Ambient Intelligence: What bends the trend?"	Hong Kong Theatre

16:45 Parallel sessions 6: Quality of life in the information Society

PANEL 1: Virtual agents and virtual residence

- Bernhard Rieder, Université Paris 8 - Département Hypermédias, “Agent Technology and the Delegation-Paradigm in a Networked Society”
- Marit Hansen, Independent Centre for Privacy Protection / Unabhängiges Landeszentrum für Datenschutz - Schleswig-Holstein, “Identity Management Systems: Gateway and Guardian for Virtual Residences”

Hong
Kong
Theatre

PANEL 2: AmI implications and privacy

- Vlad Coroama, Marc Langheinrich, Michael Rohs, ETH Zurich, “As we may live - Real-world implications of ubiquitous computing”
- Matina Halkia, Joint Research Center IPSC, “Privacy in AmI space: Designing for Private and Public Worlds”

Room
D 202

PANEL 3: Research approaches to AmI in Everyday Life

- Desiree Hoving, TNO-STB, “Enhancing the quality of life in a living lab Moerwijk (the Hague)”
- Oliver Da Costa and Yves Punie, IPTS, Seville, “S&T Roadmapping Project: Ambient Intelligence in Everyday Life”

Room
D 209

18:00 End of the day

19:30 Drink reception @ The Underground (LSE East Building)

Saturday, 26 April

09:15	Final training sessions. Overview of the activities of the day.	Hong Kong Theatre
09:30	Parallel sessions. A Maximum of five parallel sessions will be held. These will be organised around specific themes such as methodology , theory or policy issues emerging during the Conference. For instance: <ul style="list-style-type: none">○ methodologies for the study of the Information Society○ issues of policy in the Information Society○ comparative research on the Information Society○ European way to the Information Society?○ the evolution of technology in Europe○ theorising the Information society in Europe. The full list of topics will be announced at the beginning of the conference after a consultation round with the young researchers involved. YR will be able to suggest themes that they would like to see addressed.	Hong Kong Theatre Room D209 Room D202
11:15	Coffee break	Room D109
11:30	Final plenary session. A plenary session with room for reports from the parallel sessions and discussion will conclude the conference. Final greetings.	Hong Kong Theatre
12:00	Final administrative round-up. Submission of travel and accommodation receipts for reimbursement.
13:00	Departure	