

Minority Media in Europe: A Revolution From Below?

London School of Economics
London 26-27 September 2002

Thursday – 26 September

13:30 – 14:00 – Registration and Coffee (Room D 211, Clement House)

14:00 – 14:15 – Introduction by Prof. Roger Silverstone, Media@LSE (Room D 602, Clement House)

14:15 – 16:15 – Working Session I – EMTEL (Room D 311, Clement House)
Mapping Minority Media: The National and the Transnational Context

Chair: Terhi Rantanen

- Ralf Kauranen & Salla Tuori, Åbo Akademi University
Mapping Minorities and their Media: Finland

- Isabelle Rigoni, University of Warwick
The Muslim Media in Search for Social and Political Inclusion: A Comparison Britain-France

- Sari Hanafi, Palestinian Diaspora and Refugee Centre
Palestinian Virtual Networks: Charting Diasporic Movements Across National Borders

- Connie Carøe Christiansen, Danish National Institute of Social Research
News Media Consumption Among Immigrants in Europe: The Relevance of Diaspora

16:15 – 16:45 – Coffee (Room D 211, Clement House)

16:45 – 18:45 – Working Session II – EMTEL (Room D 311, Clement House)
Transnationalism and Particularities: The Case Studies

Chair: Barbara O'Connor (tbc)

Activism on the Web: The Internet, Minorities and Asylum Politics
Eugenia Siapera, University of Amsterdam

- The Albanian Diaspora-on-the-Making: Media, Migration and Social Exclusion/Inclusion
Nicola Mai, Sussex Centre for Migration Research, University of Sussex

- Consumption of News - The Palestinians in Britain, One Story, Diverse Media Cultures
Dina Matar, LSE

- New senses of place, new forms of participation, new challenges to policy: A Case Study of a Periodical in Castilian Published in Sweden
Leonor Camauër, Örebro University

(OL/MCM Parallel Sessions: Room D 703, Clement House)

Friday – 27 September

9:30 – 10:00 – Coffee (Room D 211, Clement House)

10:00 – 12:00 – Plenary I (Room D 602)

Minority or Diaspora? Media and Exclusion in Multiethnic Europe

Chair: Myria Georgiou

National, Local, Transnational Media and Diversity - Are languages and codes an Issue?

Prof. Brigitta Busch, Klagenfurt University

Audiences, 'Communities' and 'Minority Media' Professionals: An Ambiguous Dynamic

Prof. Charles Husband, University of Bradford

Minorities' Participation and Representation in the Mainstream Media: A Cross-national Perspective

Dr Jessika ter Wal, Utrecht University

Discussant: Roger Silverstone

12:00 – 13:30 – Lunch (Café Pepe, Clement House)

13:30 – 15:30 – Plenary II (Room D 602)

The Future of Ethnic Media

Chair: Ed Klute

- Rui Monteiro, IndvandrerTV, Denmark
- Sara Wajid, ex-editor of Black Media Journal; web editor, UK
- Nachida Baba Aissa, EPRA (Échanges et Productions Radiophoniques), France
- OnLine/More Colour in the Media Practitioners

15:30 – 16:00 – Coffee (Room D 211)

16:00 – 17:30 – Parallel Strategy Workshops (Rooms D602, D 311, D 703)

Ethnic Media: Directions, Problems, Visions

17:30 – 18:30 – Concluding Plenary Session (Room D 602)

Participants:

- Prof. Roger Silverstone, Media@LSE
- Ed Klute, MiraMedia
- Workshop Facilitators

18:45 – Reception, LSE (Senior Dining Room, Old Building)