

HANA CHAMBERS

Policy stream: International Development

Contact: hana.chambers@gmail.com

Nationality: British

Education:

10/2007 – 7/2010

University of Oxford

BA (Hons) English Language and Literature

Languages:

English – Native speaker

French – Advanced

Japanese – Intermediate

IT Skills:

Microsoft Office – Advanced

Stata – Intermediate

LexisNexis – Beginner

Key academic interests:

Social policy

International development

Public economics

Politics

Education policy

Key extra-curricular interests:

Travelling

Reading

Art galleries

Long walks

Good food

Work Experience:

9/2012 – 7/2014

Teach First

Secondary School Teacher

London, United Kingdom

- Commitment to social justice, achieving an 'Outstanding' grading as a teacher in a challenging state school
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Ability to achieve high standards under conditions of time-pressure and conflicting commitments.

7/2015 – 8/2015

Tata Communications

Tata Social Entrepreneurship Intern

Mumbai, India

- Independently conducted an evaluation of a primary education project in schools in slum areas of Mumbai involving collection of primary data, econometric analysis of students' attainment, survey design and administration and qualitative analysis of data from surveys
- Presentation of results to Tata Communications' management and its partner organisations, along with a written report of the study
- Initiated capacity-building measures for an NGO, including developing indicators to measure participating teachers' and schools' performance, and training its teachers in effective pedagogical methods.

4/2012 – 8/2012

UNESCO

Research and Policy Intern, Youth-Led

Social Innovation Team

Paris, France

- Qualitative research skills
- Experience in programme evaluation and grant management
- Professional working proficiency in French.