

MADELEINE D'ARCY

Policy stream: Public and Economic Policy

Contact: madeleinedarcy@gmail.com

Nationality: Australian

Education:

3/2006 – 11/2011

University of Sydney, Australia

BA and BSc (Advanced, Honours) Biology,
History, International Relations, Marine Science

2/2012 – 11/2012

Australia and New Zealand School of Government, Australia

Graduate Certificate in Public Administration

Languages:

English – Native speaker

Bislama – Fluent

French – Intermediate

IT Skills:

Stata – Intermediate

Excel – Advanced

Key academic interests:

Food security

Sustainable development

Agriculture

Trade

Governance

Key extra-curricular interests:

Travel

Cooking

Hiking

Yoga

Work Experience:

1/2012 – 3/2014

Australian Government Department of Agriculture

Policy Officer

Canberra, Australia

- Policy development including contributing to a national white paper setting a long-term vision for the food system
- Exposure to international fora including supporting agriculture and food security initiatives under Australia's 2014 Presidency of the G20
- Contributed to briefing Prime Minister, Minister for Agriculture and Australia's delegates to FAO and OECD meetings on agriculture and food security issues.

6/2015 – Present

Social Research Institute, Ipsos MORI

Summer Intern and Freelancer

London, United Kingdom

- Delivered qualitative and quantitative research for clients using a range of methodologies
- Produced timely, high-quality outputs to meet client needs including reports, infographics, presentations and data tables
- Contributed to the preparation of successful tenders for new work, including developing project plans and timelines.