

DIANA ORTIZ-CANDELEJO

Policy stream: International Development

Contact: candelejo.diana@gmail.com

Nationality: American, Ecuadorian

Education:

9/2008 – 5/2012

Drew University, United States

BA Economics (magna Cum Laude)

Languages:

English – Native speaker

Spanish – Native speaker

French – Native speaker

IT Skills:

Excel – Advanced

Stata – Intermediate

SPSS – Advanced

Key academic interests:

Economics

Education

Impact Investing

Economic Empowerment

Behavioural Economics

Key extra-curricular interests:

Painting

Fresco Painting

Photography

Interior Design

Travelling

Work Experience:

6/2013 – 9/2014

World Education Services

Latin America and Francophone Credentials

Evaluator

New York, NY

- Knowledge and expertise in Latin America and Francophone educational systems
- Intensive research skills using all three languages (English, Spanish, and French)
- Team work skills, cooperating with multi-ethnic and multi-cultural co workers.

3/2013 – 6/2013

United National Millennium Campaign

Global Youth Advocate

New York, NY

- Use of Spanish translating skills for global outreach to Latin American institutions regarding “My World” (an options survey which documented global priorities for the post 2015 agenda)
- Data analysis using large data bases for Latin America and Francophone countries.