

MARSHIELLA PANDJI

Policy stream: Public and Social Policy

Contact: mpandji@gmail.com

Nationality: Indonesian

Education:

9/2010 – 5/2014

University of Wisconsin-Madison, US

BSc Political Science, Economics, and International Studies with Certificate in German

Languages:

English – Fluent

Indonesian – Native speaker

German – Intermediate

Spanish – Beginner

IT Skills:

Stata – Intermediate

Microsoft Office – Advanced

iBooks Author – Intermediate

Key academic interests:

Macroeconomics

Development

Social Policy

International Trade and Finance

Gender

Key extra-curricular interests:

Singing

Movies

Reading

Fencing

Horseback riding

Work Experience:

11/2014 – 7/2015

Bank Indonesia Representative Office for Europe and Africa

Intern

London, UK

Researched and produced official reports for the central bank's headquarter, including:

- comprehensive study on Turkey's strategic macroeconomic policies and sovereign credit rating improvement post-2001 crisis
- analytical note on decision-making processes within the Bank of England
- market review post-European Central Bank's quantitative easing measure, post-Greece election, and toward UK election
- literature review on the role of think tanks in shaping economic perceptions of countries.

6/2014 – 9/2014

United Cities and Local Governments Asia-Pacific (UCLG ASPAC)

Strategic Services Intern

Jakarta, Indonesia

- Conducted research and formulated policy recommendations on two issues: i) women's political participation in Asia-Pacific, and ii) local government's role in the ASEAN Community 2015
- Drafted the 2014-2020 Strategic Plan for UCLG ASPAC under close collaboration with the Secretary General.

6/2013 – 8/2013

Embassy of the Republic of Indonesia in Washington DC

Summer Intern

Washington DC, US

- Worked closely with the Ambassador and the Minister Counsellor of the Press and Information Affairs on background research and logistical preparations for the 2nd Congress of Indonesian Diaspora
- Produced official reports for Indonesia's Ministry of Foreign Affairs and articles for the embassy's website by utilising professional writing and language translation skills
- Researched the historical progress of separatist movements in the United States for the Minister Counsellor of Political Affairs.