

NATHAN RASQUINET

Dual degree: MPA with the Graduate School of Public Policy (GraSPP) at the University of Tokyo

Nationality: Belgian

Contact: nathanrasqui@hotmail.com

Education:

10/2012 – 6/2015

University of Warwick, United Kingdom

BSc (Hons) Philosophy, Politics and Economics

Languages:

English – Fluent

French – Native speaker

Dutch – Intermediate

Spanish – Intermediate

Portuguese – Beginner

Russian – Beginner

Japanese – Beginner

IT Skills:

Microsoft Office – Intermediate

Stata – Intermediate

Academic interests:

European Union politics and policy

Politics – UK and EU

International migration and immigration management

Political reform of the EU

Key extra-curricular interests:

Rugby

Travelling

Languages

Reading

Work experience:

6/2016 – 4/2016

The Embassy of the Kingdom of Belgium in Tokyo

Diplomatic Intern

Tokyo, Japan

- Gained good knowledge on the creation of databases in Microsoft Access for cultural events.
- Practice with press briefings and ministerial briefing involving independent research.
- Insight into diplomatic processes and European cooperation in the diplomatic sphere.

7/2014 – 9/2014

Financial Conduct Authority

Summer Intern

London, United Kingdom

- I learned how to use effectively the research capabilities of Bloomberg will investigating cases of financial crime involving bonds.
- Gained experience in financial crime and regulation – especially insider trading and index manipulation in stock markets.
- First experience of working effectively in a team in a professional setting.