

Dulce Guevara

Policy stream: Public and Economic Policy

Contact: dulcemguevara@gmail.com

Education:

1/2014 - 12/2015

Universidad Nacional Autonoma de Mexico (UNAM), Mexico
LLM Master of Law

8/2004 - 4/2010

Instituto Tecnologico Autonomo de Mexico (ITAM), Mexico
BA International Relations

Languages:

English - Fluent

French - Intermediate

Portuguese - Beginner

IT Skills:

Stata - Intermediate

Microsoft Office - Advanced

Academic interests:

Feminist economics

Labour markets

Climate change

Gender studies

Extra-curricular interests:

Kayaking

Trekking

Travelling

Work experience:

4/2015 - 6/2017

Mexican Senate, Junior Researcher,
Mexico City, Mexico

- Implemented the New Digital Strategy that includes the creation of a Website (according to Transparency and Open Data new legislation), a digital library and different apps.
- Social Media and Web Manager responsible for the content, maintenance and updating the institute website.
- Edited the special edition with gender approach of the Institute's Magazine Pluralidad y Consenso.

10/2012 - 3/2015

Mexican Senate, Staffer, Mexico City,
Mexico

- Worked on briefing papers on the Structural Reforms, i.e. energetic reform, educational reform, and fiscal reform among others.

- Worked on Project Bills on Special Economic Zones, Social Development, Economic Growth, and Nation Branding.
- Worked on the Project for the Local Constitutional Electoral System after Federal Political Reform.

1/2010 - 9/2012

National Institute of Access to Information and Data Protection, Head of Department, Mexico City, Mexico

- Prepared comparative analysis documents about Access to Information Institutes around the world for the President Commissioner.
- Followed up to international mechanisms where IFAI represented Mexico such as: Open Government Partnership (OGP) and Transparency and Access to Information Net in Latin America (RTA for its acronym in Spanish).
- Created materials for international workshops about best practices in Access to Information and Data Protection around the world.

