

LSE Saw Swee Hock Southeast Asia Centre

LSE-Southeast Asia Early Career Researcher Network News

21 February 2019
View email in your browser

SEAC Events

On 12th March 2020, ECR Network members Laura Antona (PhD Candidate, Department of Geography and Environment, LSE) and Dr Ying Hooi Khoo (Senior Lecturer, Department of International and Strategic Studies, University of Malaya), with Dorothy Ferary (PhD candidate, UCL Institute of Education), will speak at LSE SEAC ECR Network event "Academic Freedom in Southeast Asia and the Global South". More details can be found here.

The Call for Panels for ASEAS 2020 conference is now open. SEAC will host the 2020 Association of Southeast Asian Studies (UK) Conference, celebrating ASEAS UK's 50th year. The conference is on the theme of Prosperity and Precarity in Southeast Asia and will take place at LSE on 4-6 September 2020. More information can be found here.

ECR Network News and Updates

ECR Network member Charles Dunst (LSE) has become an Associate of LSE IDEAS, LSE's foreign policy think tank.

ECR Network member Dr Gunjan Sondhi (Open University) has been awarded funding by the British Academy for a writing workshop on international student migration within Africa. The grant was awarded in partnership with In partnership with James Jowie (African Network for Internationalization of Education), Professor Paul Statham (Sussex Centre for Migration Research), Professor Parvati Raghuram (Open University) and Dr Markus Breines (Open University).

On 25th February 2020, ECR Network member Dr Evan A. Laksana (CSIS Indonesia) will talk on Indonesia's defense and foreign policies at the IKAMS-East Asian International Relations Forum in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia.

On 19th February 2020, ECR Network member Dr Lisa Tilley (Birkbeck University of London) spoke at Scientists United's event "The Last Decade: Climate Crisis, Colonialism & "Green" Growth".

On 12th February 2020, ECR Network member Dr Jordana Ramalho (UCL) gave a talk at UCL's Development Planning Unit Breakfasts on "Engendering urban resilience through a focus on 'the everyday'".

New Publications and Media

ECR Network member Dr Pon Souvannaseng (Centre for Crisis Studies and Mitigation, University of Manchester) co-authored a working paper with Dr Sanna Markkenen (University of Cambridge) and Dr Judith Plummer Braeckman (University of Cambridge) titled "Mapping the evolving complexity of large hydropower project finance in low and lower-middle income countries" on Future Dams.

ECR Network member Dr Mara Nogueira (Birkbeck University of London) has published an article co-authored by Prof Sandra Jovchelovitch (LSE), Dr Maria Cecilia Dedios Sanguinetti (LSE) and Dr Dr Jacqueline Priego Hernandez (University of Portsmouth) , titled "Imagination and mobility in the city: Porosity of borders and human development in divided urban environments" in Culture and Psychology.

ECR Network member Dr Hannah Loney (The University of Melbourne) has published a book review of 'The International People's Tribunal for 1965 and the Indonesian Genocide' by Wieringa and Melvin and Pohlman on H-Diplo.

Opportunities

Applications open for a non-tenure track full-time instructor position in Asian Studies at the Center for Asian Studies, University of Colorado Boulder.

The successful candidate will contribute to growing the Asian Studies program and maintaining the Center's undergraduate research publication, The Colorado Journal of Asian Studies. Preference will be given to candidates with teaching experience, field research, or experience living in Asia, and specializations that complement the Center's developing strengths in Southeast Asia, South Asia, and Southwest Asia.

More details can be found here.

SEAC offers a Seminar Series and Networking Grant, for which it considers applications on a rolling basis. The scheme is open to Centre Associates, LSE academic/research staff and LSE Early Career Researchers, including PhD students. Non-LSE ECRs are also encouraged to collaborate with LSE-based colleagues to apply for funding. The scheme is intended for seminar series, study groups or networking events focusing on social science issues relevant to Southeast Asia, aligning with one or more of SEAC's core research themes of urbanisation, connectivity and governance. You can find more info here. If you'd like to discuss an idea before applying, please feel free to get in touch with us at seac.admin@lse.ac.uk.

Supporting the LSE Saw Swee Hock Southeast Asia Centre

If you like the work that SEAC is doing, please consider supporting us to help expand the impact of our activities.

The Saw Swee Hock Southeast Asia Centre (SEAC) is a multi-disciplinary Research Centre within the London School of Economics and Political Science.

Building on the School's deep academic and historical connections with Southeast Asia, SEAC seeks to foster world-leading academic and policy research with a focus on the Southeast Asian social and political landscape.

SEAC is LSE's gateway to understanding Southeast Asia.

The Saw Swee Hock Southeast Asia Centre was established with the generous support of Professor Saw Swee Hock.

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list