

Congratulations once again on receiving an offer to study at LSE! Don't forget, our Offer Holder Day is coming up on Wednesday 30 April 2025. It's a wonderful opportunity to explore the LSE campus, meet current students and staff, and learn more about life at LSE and studying in London.

What to Expect on Offer Holder Day:

- Subject Tasters: Get a feel for what studying in the Department of Sociology is like in this taster session led by our Programme Director, Olivia Rutazibwa.
- Department Meet & Greet: We will also be hosting a special session in our department's space, where you can meet academic staff and current students, with tea and cake available to enjoy.
- Campus Tour & Accommodation: Explore our campus and student accommodation options.
- Information Stands: Speak with staff from Accommodation, Financial Support, LSE LIFE, the Language Centre, LSE Students' Union (LSESU), and more.

To secure your place, please visit the Offer Holder Day event page for further details and registration.

We also encourage you to visit our Offer Holders' Webpages for more resources and information.

We look forward to meeting you!

Best wishes,

BSc Programmes Team, Department of Sociology
