“Welcome to LSE Summer School. LSE is a very special place – a truly international institution in the heart of London, serious about its mission to be the world’s leading social science university, with the greatest global impact.

Summer School at LSE provides you with world-class instruction infused with enthusiasm and contemporary relevance from our distinguished faculty – and I know personally, since I have taught at our Summer School many times. As well as gaining profound subject knowledge, you will have the opportunity to hone your professional development in our ‘Spark’ sessions and connect with remarkable individuals through our many social events.

This is a truly once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to collaborate with fellow students from every culture, background, and walk of life; and forge an international network of friends and perspectives.”

Professor Eric Neumayer
Interim President and Vice Chancellor
Welcome to LSE Summer School

“Welcome to the London School of Economics and Political Science, one of the foremost social science universities in the world.

LSE is a global community of people and ideas in the beating heart of central London. We’re a specialist social sciences university, ranking second in Europe in the QS subject rankings 2023 and as top university in London in the Complete University Guide 2024.

LSE Summer School is the largest of its kind in Europe. We offer an exciting range of courses across the wide spectrum of LSE’s world-class teaching, taught by leading scholars in their fields, and they can be taken for credit towards your degree at your home institution.*

At Summer School, you’ll gain an invaluable insight into leading-edge thinking in each discipline and be encouraged to reflect on the key issues facing society today.

Lecturers are experts in their chosen fields and are committed to teaching with academic rigour and contemporary relevance. Our faculty are actively involved in academic research and many advise world-leading companies and government bodies.

You can choose to study for three, six or nine weeks, in one of the most well-renowned institutions in the world, in one of the greatest cities in the world. I’m delighted to invite you to join us in 2024 – to challenge yourself and experience an unforgettable time in your life.”

* Subject to approval by your home institution

London’s top university

As ranked by the Complete University Guide 2024
At Summer School you benefit from the same first-class facilities and services as a full-time LSE student.

LSE is based on one campus and many of the streets around us are pedestrianised, making the campus feel like a real community.

We are in central London near to the River Thames, Covent Garden and Theatreland, the Royal Courts of Justice and many other London sights.

From the bustling Saw Swee Hock Student Centre with its student pub, nightclub and roof terrace, to the brand-new Marshall Building’s state-of-the-art classrooms and study areas, we know you’ll feel right at home here.

And at the heart of campus sits Lincoln’s Inn Fields, gardens which have provided a tranquil oasis in the middle of the city since 1445.

“Making the most of our campus is all part of getting the best learning experience and an authentic taste of life in central London.

Work out with discounted LSE Gym membership, maximise your learning in fully equipped modern teaching spaces, and relax and meet with new friends in the student bars and cafes.

As an LSE student, you will have full access to our iconic library which offers excellent resources, long opening hours, and the perfect study environment.”

Spark

Professional Skills
By LSE Summer School

At LSE Summer School, we don’t only offer a world-class education, we also offer you world-class extracurricular activities to enhance your personal and professional development alongside your academic growth.

Spark is a programme of exciting events, bootcamps, panels, pitches and workshops that helps students enhance their professional skills for today’s rapidly developing workplace.

Working in collaboration with LSE Careers, Digital Skills Lab, LSE LIFE and the School’s entrepreneurship hub, LSE Generate, you will gain access to some of the most dynamic and exciting industry experts and business leaders in the LSE ecosystem.

Spark offers you a unique and detailed insight into how to make yourself stand out in the professional world.

“This is the ideal moment to start building the courage, aptitudes, agility and resilience – the innovation and entrepreneurial mindset – that will equip you to navigate the ups and downs ahead.”

L.J. Silverman
Head of LSE Generate

Digital Skills

Digital skills are increasingly important in today’s workplace, as more industries become dependent on technology and digital tools. Learn how to use technology to complete tasks, solve problems, communicate effectively and capture business opportunity.

Entrepreneurship

We focus on developing skills not only for those looking to start a business but anyone who would like to develop their entrepreneurial mindset – a skill prized by many graduate employers.

Industry Insights

Gain a deeper understanding of individual industries, their current trends, challenges, and opportunities. Understand your target industry, its dynamics and how to be successful in it.

Job Search Skills

Learn how to succeed in today’s rapidly fluctuating job market. You will be more effective and successful in your job search and increase your chances of finding a job that is a perfect fit.

Postgraduate Study

Postgraduate study skills explore the abilities and strategies that are necessary to effectively apply for a postgraduate programme, and to perform effectively when you start the course.

Wellbeing

Individuals who practice healthy wellbeing techniques often improve productivity, have greater job satisfaction, and are happier in work and life. Sessions on mindfulness, stress management and how to worry effectively will equip you to handle any situation and achieve a balanced life.

Spark events in 2023 included:

- The Value of Networking & LinkedIn
