

Events Archive for 2020

Student events handbook 2019/20

Find out all about the events that we held in 2019/20 for our Undergraduate and MSc students!

.....

30 November 2020

IBM guest lecture: Using AI for Business Problems

Please join us for an IBM guest lecture on 30 November from 12pm - 1.30pm via Zoom!

Title: Using AI for Business Problems

Speaker: Loek Vredenberg who is the Chief Technology Officer of IBM Norge.

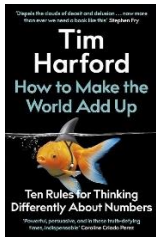

Abstract: This lecture positions Artificial Intelligence in context of how IBM use AI to solve business problems. It focuses on the different types of technologies IBM make available to clients and shows a small number of actual client cases. The event will benefit anyone interested in the use of AI, a career in technology, or careers at IBM. There will also be a Q&A session, so please bring any questions you may have.

Biography: Loek Vredenberg is the Chief Technology Officer of IBM Norge, with experience of technical leadership roles within IBM internationally and for deliveries of complex IT solutions. In recent years he has focused on artificial intelligence and IBMs cognitive technologies. He is currently working on cloud-based industry platforms for digital transformation. He has contributed to public debate around AI and given lectures and key notes on AI in many different settings.

.....

17 September 2020

'How to Make the World Add Up' online public event with Tim Harford!

We are very excited to announce our first PLP this year! This online public event will take place on 17 September from 6pm with author and Economist Tim Harford on the day his new book, How to Make the World Add Up: Ten Rules for Thinking Differently About Numbers, is published! Chaired by our very own Professor Irini Moustaki, this looks to be a fantastic event and one not to be missed. You can register for the event from 10am on 3 September so set a reminder in your calendars!

You can pre-order Tim's book How to Make the World Add Up: Ten Rules for Thinking Differently About Numbers.

22 and 23 July 2020

End of term celebrations for all of our final year students!

We invite our final year BSc and MSc students to join us for celebratory Zoom events to mark the end of teaching and assessments in the Department of Statistics! We are so proud of all of our students and their achievements and we are even more impressed given the circumstances and we know that they should be very proud of their accomplishments!

30 April 2020

Risk and Stochastics Conference

Please note that this event has been postponed.

Our annual Risk and Stochastics event is taking place on 30th April at LSE and we have seven fantastic speakers lined up!

End of 2020 events archive.