

Offer Holder Admissions Q&A

STEPS AFTER RECEIVING AN OFFER

Graduate Admissions Premium Service Manager, Agnes Petho, ARD, LSE

Department of Statistics

1. Offer Reply Form

- Available on your Graduate Applicant Portal (GAP)
- Indicate your acceptance of the offer
- Inform us if you are disabled or have specific learning needs
- Provide your passport number (non-EU/EEA nationals)
- Provide a photograph for your student card
- Indicate your agreement to the terms and conditions of registration
- Submit the form within 6 weeks (not a harsh deadline)

2. Financial Undertaking Form

- Available on your Graduate Applicant Portal (GAP)- deadline 31 July 2024
- Indicate how you wish to pay your tuition fees (outline a personal payment plan (PPP), indicating the number, dates and size of instalments you intend to pay)
- If fees are being paid by an organisation, please give full details (obtain the signature of the responsible person)
- FUF help videos: Finance in Focus Series
- Instalment deadlines: 28 October 2024
28 January 2025
28 April 2025

3. Confirming an offer of admission

- Outstanding requirements list is available on your Graduate Applicant Portal (GAP) under the 'My tasks' section
- Conditional and Unconditional Offers (English conditions, degree conditions, Summer School conditions)
- Institution code is 0972 (ETS: GRE/TOEFL) – HMT-86-56 (GMAT)
- Providing official documents (final transcripts and degree certificates) electronically directly from the institutions- graduate.documents@lse.ac.uk (sharing the documents via verification sites is also acceptable)
- References from official email addresses

5. Certificate of Acceptance for Studies (CAS)

- Start issuing CASs from May onwards
- CAS eligibility: offer accepted, FUF submitted, unconditional offer
- The CAS is a unique reference number and NOT a paper document
- CAS email contains your CAS details, student details, course details, evidence provided, fee information
- Student Advice and Engagement Team (SAET)
- Pre-CAS checks are automatic. Once you receive it, please confirm if the content is correct via the Pre-CAS form on your GAP account
- Your CAS number can only be used once. If your visa application is refused, please let LSE know to request a new CAS
