TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF RESIDENCE ("the Ts & Cs")

INTRODUCTION

Nature of Agreement

This Agreement is a licence and not a tenancy. This means that you have a personal right to occupy the Room during the Period of Residence but do not have exclusive possession of the Room. This means that we have the right to:

1. enter your Room at any time and for any reason (which is similar to staying in a hotel);
2. require you to move to an alternative room (again this is similar to staying in a hotel); and
3. where the Account Booking Review in the LSE Student Accommodation System states that the room type is "shared", we require you to share the Room with another person. Where we exercise these rights we will do so in accordance with these Ts & Cs.

Terms of this Agreement

The terms of this Agreement are contained within:-

1. these Ts & Cs;
2. the Account Booking Review in the LSE Student Accommodation System; and
3. the LSE Student Accommodation Disciplinary Code

Together, these documents set out our respective rights and responsibilities

Formation of this Agreement

This Agreement will be formed, and a legally binding contract entered into between us upon the later of (a) the Acceptance by you of the Ts & Cs and (b) the payment of the Deposit.

If you move into the Accommodation prior to the date that you have both Accepted the Ts & Cs and paid the Deposit, you will be deemed to have Accepted these Ts & Cs and entered into a legally binding contract with us, which is subject to the terms of this Agreement by your action of moving into the Accommodation.

If you are under 18 when this Agreement is formed, we will hold the licence on trust for you until you reach 18. During that time, you will enjoy all the rights set out in this Agreement and be subject to all the obligations contained in it. When you reach 18, you will be entitled to terminate the Agreement in accordance with clause 6.3.3 below. If you choose not to do so, the Agreement will be legally binding upon you.

Period of Residence

Unless it specifies otherwise in the Account Booking Review in the LSE Student Accommodation System, the Period of Residence is for the academic terms only and does not include the Christmas or Easter vacation periods. Accordingly: -

1. if your Period of Residence does not include the Christmas vacation, you must vacate the Accommodation and remove all of your personal possessions from it by 10am on 14 December 2024. You may return to the Accommodation on 12 January 2025;

2. if your Period of Residence does not include the Easter vacation, you must vacate the Accommodation and remove all of your personal possessions from it by 10am on 5 April 2025. You may return to the Accommodation on 4 May 2025.

Our responsibilities

Our responsibilities are set out in clause 1 Our Responsibilities (below). We are fully committed to fulfilling our responsibilities under this Agreement. If we fail to meet these, we expect you to tell us and give us the opportunity to put things right.

Your responsibilities

By entering into this Agreement, you commit to comply with your responsibilities. These are set out in clause 2 Your Responsibilities (below) and include a commitment by you to comply with the LSE Student Accommodation Disciplinary Code. If you fail to meet these, we will tell you and (unless the failure is serious or persistent) we will give you a chance to put things right. If you fail to take this opportunity, or if the failure is serious or persistent, we will be entitled to take legal action against you which may result in you having to leave your Accommodation.

Variations to this Agreement

With the exception of any changes as a result of government legislation, this Agreement cannot be changed without prior written agreement between you and us.

3. OUR RIGHTS

3.1 Alterations and building works

We have the right to carry out any alterations or building works at the Accommodation, the Hall and/or on our adjoining or neighbouring property without liability for disturbance provided that, as far as practicable, we have used reasonable endeavours to minimise any disturbance.

3.2 Access and inspection

3.2.1 We have the right to enter the Accommodation at all times, for any reason and without having to give you any prior notice. We would normally, however, only enter the Accommodation for one or more of the following reasons:

- (a) in an emergency; and/or
- (b) to inspect the Accommodation, the items listed in the Inventory or any other part of the Halls and to clean and repair the Accommodation or any other part of the Halls to comply with our responsibilities under this Agreement; and/or
- (c) for any other reasonable purpose.

3.2.2 Where we do wish to enter the Accommodation, we will usually give you prior notice of this unless it is an emergency, we are concerned about your health or wellbeing or a potential health and safety risk, we suspect a serious disciplinary issue or it relates to the regular cleaning of the Accommodation. If we do not give you prior notice, we will knock on the door first in order to see if you are present. If you are not present then, irrespective of whether or not this relates to a pre-arranged visit, we will let ourselves into the Accommodation using our duplicate key and shall inform you that we have accessed the Accommodation as soon as reasonably possible.

3.3 Removal of items from the Accommodation

We may remove from the Accommodation or Hall any items (either used or unused) that belong to you or your Visitors and which we consider (acting reasonably) are dangerous and/or may cause a fire hazard. If we remove an item, we will notify you of this and confirm who you need to contact in order to recover the item. You will not be able, however, to take the item back into the Accommodation or Hall.

3.4 Our right to require you to relocate

3.4.1 We reserve the right to move you to similar alternative accommodation in any circumstances, including the following:-

- (a) for reasonable management reasons (e.g. where we consider, acting reasonably, that we need to carry out works to the Accommodation or Hall, that the Accommodation or Hall is unfit for occupation, or where the Period of Residence includes the Christmas, Easter and/or Summer vacations and the Hall is not fully occupied during a vacation period);
- (b) where we reasonably consider that, because of your behaviour, it is necessary to move you from the Accommodation to protect your well-being or the well-being of others, to prevent safeguarding issues arising or to prevent damage to the Accommodation or others;

- (c) where we reasonably consider that your continued presence in the Accommodation could pose a health and safety risk to other occupants or could expose you to a health and safety risk from other occupants, including exposure to infectious diseases or could expose you to safeguarding issues;
- (d) where you are required to self quarantine or self isolate and the Accommodation or Hall is not suitable to do this

3.4.2 If we request you to relocate:

- (a) we will give you written notice of this, provide details of the alternative accommodation and notify you of the date on which you are to move. We will give you reasonable notice of this date, taking into account the circumstances. This may mean that, in certain circumstances, the notice period may be as little as 24 hours;
- (b) if the similar alternative accommodation is not satisfactory to you (acting reasonably), you may terminate this Agreement. If you wish to do so, you must give the Residential Services Office written notice of this no later than seven (7) days after the date of the written notice that we have given to you under clause (a). The Agreement will then end on a date seven (7) days after your notice to terminate was given to the Residential Services Office, or such other date as you may agree with the Residential Services Office (acting reasonably). We will refund any of the Licence Fee you have paid in respect of the period after the termination date;
- (c) where you can produce a valid receipt, we will pay to you any reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (e.g. travel costs) that you incur by moving into the alternative accommodation. If you do not move out of the Accommodation following a request by us to do so, we can take legal action to force you to move out.

3.5 Our rights in relation to health and safety risks

3.5.1 We may require you and any Family Member/Partner to vacate the Accommodation on a temporary basis on 24 hours' notice (or less in the event of an emergency) if:-

- a) we reasonably consider that your continued presence in the Accommodation could pose a health and safety risk to other occupants or could expose you to a health and safety risk from other occupants (including exposure to infectious diseases, such as COVID-19);
- b) if you or other occupants fail to comply with Health and Safety Guidance;
- c) to comply with government guidance and good working practice in times of pandemic;
- d) to carry out deep cleaning of the Accommodation; or
- e) in the event of a public health emergency.

3.5.2 We may temporarily suspend your rights to use parts of the Accommodation which do not form part of the Room and Communal Areas on 24 hours' notice (or less in the event of an emergency):-

- a) in the event that continued use would pose a health and safety risk,
- b) to comply with government guidance and good working practice in times of pandemic;
- c) to carry out deep cleaning; or
- d) in the event of a public health emergency.

4. YOUR RIGHTS

4.1 Occupation

We grant you the following rights which you must exercise in accordance with your responsibilities under this Agreement:-

- 4.1.1 A licence to occupy the Room (and where the Account Booking Review in the LSE Student Accommodation System states that the room type is "shared" the licence to occupy and use the Room in common with the person we allocate to share the Room);
- 4.1.2 The non-exclusive right (in common with us and all others that we authorise to do so) to use any parts of the Accommodation which do not form part of the Room; and
- 4.1.3 The non-exclusive right (in common with us and all others that we authorise to do so) to use the Communal Areas.

5. IF YOU BREACH THIS AGREEMENT

5.1 Payment for loss or damage

- 5.1.1 You must pay for all reasonable loss and damage we suffer as a result of any breach of this Agreement by you, any Family Member/Partner or your Visitors. This includes (but is not limited to), any costs properly and reasonably incurred by us in arranging any additional cleaning or deep cleaning required, issuing replacement lost or stolen keys/cards, repairing or replacing our fixtures, fittings, furniture or equipment, collecting arrears, paying professional advisors, pursuing court proceedings, administration expenses and any income we lose arising from your failure to move out of the Accommodation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.
- 5.1.2 Where any damage is caused to the Accommodation or the Communal Areas and we are unable to identify the perpetrators (and we will use reasonable endeavours to identify them), we may (acting reasonably) charge you a fair proportion of the reasonable cost of making good any loss or damage caused unless you can demonstrate that you were not at the Accommodation or in the Hall when the damage occurred. We have set out details of what we would anticipate to be typical charges for repairing common types of damage and additional cleaning in the Student Handbook which can be viewed here: lse.ac.uk/currenthallresidents, but any charges levied would reflect the reasonable costs we incur in remedying the damage caused.

5.2 The procedure we will follow if you have breached this Agreement

If you, any Family Member/Partner or your Visitors breach any of the terms of this Agreement then action may be taken against you under the procedure set out below: If the breach relates to your behaviour, we reserve the right to instead deal with the matter in accordance with the LSE Student Accommodation Disciplinary Code.

- 5.2.1 On us identifying or becoming aware of any breach by you of the terms of this Agreement, the Warden or Head of Residential Life will decide whether to:
 - (a) take no action;
 - (b) discuss this with you informally;
 - (c) write to you to draw your attention to the alleged breach and/or take further action in accordance with clauses 5.2.2.;

(d) refer the matter to the School Secretary for a formal investigation

5.2.2 Except in the circumstances set out in clause 5.2.3, where we decide to take further action in relation to any breach:

(a) the Warden or Head of Residential Life will investigate the alleged breach and write to you drawing the alleged breach to your attention;

(b) in that letter, the Warden or the Head of Residential Life will invite you to meet with them in order to discuss with you the circumstances of the alleged breach;

(c) at the conclusion of the meeting, or if without good reason you fail to attend the meeting, the Warden or the Head of Residential Life will decide (acting reasonably) whether you have committed the alleged breach and, if so, whether to:

i. give you an oral warning; or

ii. a written warning; or

iii. a final written warning (which will be issued if you have already received a written warning); or

iv. terminate the Agreement (this decision will only be taken if, in the opinion of the relevant authority (acting reasonably), the breach is sufficiently serious or you have persistently breached the Agreement); or

v. refer the matter to the Head of Residential Life to be dealt with under the LSE Student Accommodation Disciplinary Code. This may result in a decision being made that we will terminate this Agreement; and/or

vi. require you to pay for any loss or damage and/ or our reasonable costs arising from the breach.

(d) Head of Residential Life will write to you, normally within 3 days of the meeting, notifying you of the decision made;

(e) if you are unhappy with the decision made, you can appeal the decision in accordance with the procedure set out in clause 8.1.

5.2.3 The above procedure will not apply if you have failed to pay the Licence Fee in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. In such circumstances, we can terminate this Agreement without giving you any notice of our intention to do so. As such, if you are experiencing any financial difficulties which may mean that you are unable to pay the Licence Fee when it is due you should immediately contact the Residential Services Office.

6. TERMINATION OF THIS AGREEMENT

6.1 Your right to terminate before the start of the Period of Residence and before you take up occupation

6.1.1 You may terminate this Agreement up to and including 31 July 2024 if:
