Who can book Summer School accommodation?

You can only book accommodation after you have received your offer for an LSE Summer School course.

Once you have this, you will be given a password to access the special Summer School accommodation rates. For more information, visit: Summer School accommodation

How can I book Summer School accommodation in LSE halls?

For main sessions:

- You can book accommodation online. Follow the 'book online' link on each hall page. To see which halls are available, visit: Accommodation for LSE Summer School.

For preparatory English course accommodation:

- Please contact the Residences Summer School office by using the webform on the Accommodation Summer School homepage.
- All Summer School accommodation stays start on a Sunday.

Why is the room type or hall I want to book not showing as available?

If a room type does not come up when you search for availability in a hall, it means that room type or hall is sold out. We do not keep waiting lists.

Any cancelled room will automatically be released to general sale so we suggest you regularly check online as availability can change from day to day.

Can I arrive earlier than the start of the session?

There is a limited number of rooms available to book for early arrival on the Saturday before the official Sunday arrival.

We cannot guarantee that all requests for early arrivals will be accommodated. Bookings are received on a first come first served base until availability runs out. Sidney Webb House is not bookable for early arrival.

Can I book a room for fewer than 20 nights?

No. Accommodation for each session is for 20 nights and cannot be shortened. Preparatory English Course accommodation is for 7 nights and cannot be shortened.

Do you offer a discount?

We do offer a multi session discount.

If you book accommodation for more than one session, we include the connecting nights for free. So, for two sessions you will stay 41 nights, but only pay for 40 nights, and if you stay for three sessions (62 nights) you only get charged for 60 nights.

I want to share with a friend - how can we book?

To share a room, all of you must be attending the LSE Summer School. One of you needs to make the booking and pay the fee for the entire room.

Please arrange the split of the fees between yourselves, as we can't accept part-payments. Please enter the name(s) of the other sharers when you book, so that we can make sure we allocate you to the same room.

Can I stay in a twin or triple room if I don't have a friend to stay with?

No. We can't find roommates for you if you want to share a room.

You can only stay in shared rooms if you have someone you want to share with and you book together (see: 'I want to share with a friend - how can we book?').

Can I live with my parent/sibling/relative in a twin room if they're not studying on the LSE Summer School?

No. We only have a limited number of rooms available, so we are unable to offer rooms to relatives as we need to ensure accommodation for LSE Summer School students. However, relatives can book rooms separately at: www.lsevacations.co.uk.

Can I stay on after LSE Summer School has finished?

Yes, subject to availability. Check at lsevacations.co.uk or contact vacations@lse.ac.uk.

What type of rooms are available?

Yes. A limited number of rooms in High Holborn Residence and Passfield Hall are accessible, and some have adapted kitchen and bathroom facilities. Some rooms in other halls may be suitable for you as well, depending on what your needs are. To find the best option and to book an accessible room, please contact using the contact form on this page.

For more information about accessibility in our halls, AccessAble have put together detailed online accessibility guides for LSE halls.

How much does it cost to stay in LSE halls?

Please check dedicated hall homepage to check prices.

Room allocation requests

Allocation requests will be noted. We will try our best to fulfil them but can't guarantee this will be possible.

Can I have a guest stay with me in my hall?

No. Our halls operate a no-guest policy during LSE Summer School. No overnight guests are permitted.

Do I have to bring towels, bed linen, pillows?

No. We will provide you with a mattress protector, duvet and duvet cover, pillow and pillow case, sheet, a bath towel and a hand towel. Bed sizes vary between halls and sometimes between rooms in one hall. For bed and bedding sizes, view the Table of bed sizes in halls.

Is there a hair dryer?

Not in the bedrooms but our residences have a limited number of hair dryers which can be used on a first come first served base. Ask reception for details once you have checked in.

How often are the rooms cleaned?

The common areas of the building are cleaned daily, and your room will be cleaned once a week.

Are the rooms air-conditioned?

No. None of the rooms are air-conditioned.

Meals

Is breakfast included?

Breakfast is included in the fee you pay.

Depending on which hall you are staying at, it is either served at the hall or on LSE campus and either included for five or seven days. For full details, check the page for each hall.

- Bankside House
- High Holborn Residence
- Rosebery Hall
- Carr-Saunders Hall

Breakfast served on LSE campus at the Fourth Floor Restaurant, Monday to Friday only:

If you have a severe food allergy, catered halls will not be suitable for you.

Facilities

What is in the kitchen?

Generally, each floor has a kitchen area with a microwave, toaster, kettle, and cooking utensils.

Cutlery and crockery is not provided, however some may be left behind in the kitchens by students as part of our environmental reuse scheme.

For more details, check the Facilities information for each hall.

Are there gym facilities?

urbanest Westminster Bridge has its own private health suite with gym, sauna, fitness studio and a pool.

The other halls don't have gym facilities but during LSE Summer School, you're welcome to use the LSE Students' Union gym. Please check details and special prices here.

Can I send post to the hall before I arrive?

No. Any mail arriving for you before you check in will be refused. Unfortunately, we just don't have the storage space to keep all mail before LSE Summer School starts so, please do not send any post prior to arrival.

What is the cost of laundry?

There are laundry facilities at each of our halls. More information about the laundry instructions and prices in the halls can be found here.

Cancelling or amending your accommodation booking

How can I cancel my accommodation?

You can now get a full refund of the accommodation fees if you cancel up to 21 days before arrival.

To cancel use the contact us form on this page. If you have cancelled your course, you still must cancel your accommodation separately.

Please note that cancellation of a study programme does not automatically mean that your accommodation is cancelled, too.

For more information, view the [LSE Summer School accommodation terms and conditions \[PDF\]](#)

Will I get a refund if I cancel?

Yes, but only if you cancel more than 21 days before arrival. Our cancellation policy is set out below:

Date of cancellation	Accommodation fee refund (%)
21+ calendar days before arrival	100
Less than 21 calendar days before arrival	No refund

How long will it take for the refunded money to reach my account?

It can take up to 28 days depending on the bank and card company.

I've cancelled my LSE Summer School study programme. Does this automatically cancel my accommodation?

No. Your accommodation must be cancelled separately, in writing, by the person named on the booking. To cancel use the contact us webform on the Accommodation Summer School homepage.

I've cancelled my LSE Summer School programme, can I continue to stay in the hall? Can I amend my booking?

No, LSE halls are exclusively available for LSE students. If you withdraw from the programme you will be expected to vacate your room 24 hours after the official withdrawal. Please note that fees are not refundable in the event that you withdraw from your programme.

I booked a room by mistake. Will I get a refund?

If you've booked a room by mistake, e.g. you will be staying in a twin room and your roommate also made a booking, or you booked the pre-session English accommodation when not necessary, please contact us as soon as you notice.

Depending on how early you let us know, we may be able to offer a partial refund (please see our cancellation terms and conditions). However, if it is within 21 days of arrival, we cannot offer a refund, regardless of whether it was booked in error.

Can I amend my booking?

Yes, modifications are possible, subject to availability and deadline indicated in the table below.
