

Advising the Advisers

Will Breare-Hall

Student Recruitment and Study Abroad Manager

Advising the Advisers

2018

Welcome to LSE

what is LSE?

- London School of Economics and Political Science
- Dedicated social science institution
- Founded in 1895
- A college of the federal University of London
- 10,451 students, 47% undergraduate, 53% female, 52% from outside the UK
- 'LSE LIFE' and extensive student support

meet the departments

42 undergraduate degrees

- Accounting
- Anthropology
- Economic History
- Economics
- Finance
- Geography & Environment
- Government
- History
- International Relations
- Languages
- Law
- Management
- Mathematics
- Philosophy
- Social Policy
- Social Psychology
- Sociology
- Statistics

lse.ac.uk/study

research impact

- Reforming England's libel law.
- Creating more liveable cities.
- Accounting for nature as a valuable asset.
- Preserving citizens' interests on the Internet.
- Improving urban economic policy in the UK.
- Improving employee engagement and performance.
- Making waste treatment a safer business.

beyond LSE

- LSE Careers – lse.ac.uk/careers
 - Outstanding programme of events, exclusive jobs and opportunities, one-to-one careers consultations and skills development
- 93% of leavers from 2015/16 were working, studying or doing something else six months after graduation
- 32% of undergraduates were pursuing further study after graduating
- £30,000 average starting salary for graduates working full-time in UK
- Top four employment sectors for LSE graduates are:
 - banking and finance
 - politics, government and public sector
 - consultancy
 - education and teaching

What we offer

For prospective students:

- Open Days
- Campus Tours
- Student Shadowing
- Taster Courses
- Student Blogs and Videos
- Widening Participation and outreach activities

For teachers:

- Teachers' newsletter
- Admissions Advice
- Visits to schools and colleges
- Group visits to LSE
- Webinars
- Advancing Access

@StudyLSE

lse.ac.uk/study

meet the speakers

Claire Churchill

Admissions Specialist

Alex Ingold

Undergraduate Admissions Manager

Sarah Mak

Admissions Specialist

Debbie Nicholls

Admissions Specialist

Sue Plater

Financial Support Manager

Kirsty Wadsley

Head of Widening Participation

Programme

10.15am	Applying to a competitive university: LSE's Admissions Policies and Processes
10.45am	Student finance
11.10am	Networking break
11.30am	Workshop 1 <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ The Personal Statement – Wolfson Theatre▪ The Teacher's Reference – Thai Theatre
12.45pm	Lunch
1.30pm	Life at LSE - Ieuan Bennett and Sean Murphy
2.00pm	Workshop 2 <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ The Personal Statement – Wolfson Theatre▪ The Teacher's Reference – Thai Theatre
3.15pm	Evaluations and close

THE LONDON SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS AND POLITICAL SCIENCE ■

Enjoy your day!