This is really different from the last place I studied!

How do I get through all these readings?

My notes are a mess...

What are exams like here?

There's so much to do and so little time.

Speaking up in seminars is really tough. What am I meant to say?

This is what I'm planning for my next essay...

Where can I find ___ at LSE?

A large yellow triangle is positioned on the left side of the slide, pointing towards the bottom right.

Workshops to discover and practise the skills you'll need to succeed.

Write essays that LSE markers want to read

Write it in Your own words: paraphrase and synthesise

Take effective notes in lectures

Make sense of your essay question

Conquer your reading list: read selectively, proactively, and efficiently

Make clear, concise, critical notes from your readings

Find the readings you need at the Library

Reference with confidence

Know your sources – selecting texts for your assignments

The screenshot displays the LSE LIFE website interface. The browser's address bar shows the URL <https://info.lse.ac.uk/current-students/lse-life>. The website header includes the LSE logo and a navigation menu with links such as 'Current students', 'Mental Health Awareness Week', 'You've got this', 'LSE Student Futures', 'Key information', 'Part of LSE', 'Student Wellbeing', 'LSE LIFE', 'Library', and 'PhD Academy'. Below the header, a grid of six service tiles is visible. The first tile, 'Start your LSE LIFE', features a Venn diagram and the text 'You've got questions, we've got answers.' The second tile, 'How to use LSE LIFE', shows a signpost and states 'We're available, wherever you are.' The third tile, 'Create a great dissertation', includes a gear icon and says 'We're there - from proposal to hand-in.' The fourth tile, 'Events & Workshops', is highlighted with a large yellow circle and features a starburst icon with the text 'Practical sessions covering skills you'll find useful in and out of the classroom.' The fifth tile, 'LSE LIFE Moodle', displays a collage of icons and mentions 'Slides, worksheets, activities, and so much more.' The sixth tile, 'One-to-one sessions', shows two large arrows and invites users to 'Come chat with us about anything study related'. At the bottom of the page, there are additional links for 'Weekly Update' and a group photo.

Programme: LSE LIFE Programme

Course: Use your time wisely in Michaelmas Term

Description:

The beginning of each term is a chance to plan and prioritise your tasks and activities to optimise your study time, but also to help you make the most of what LSE and London have to offer. In this workshop, we will discuss what to expect from the Michaelmas Term and create a plan to organise yourself and your work.

Prerequisites: none

Welcome to LSE LIFE

You've chosen what you want to learn. Come to LSE LIFE to learn how you want to learn.

To help you do this, we've structured our resources and events on this page around a set of key skills for learning and studying, and for everyday life. Each one is illustrated by an icon: red icons present key academic skills, blue ones show dimensions of personal development, and purple combines red and blue to highlight some specific goals that might be relevant to you.

Decide which skills are most important for you and click on those icons for resources, screencasts, and advice to discover - and practise - those specific skills.

LSE LIFE is the place to come for support, guidance, and ideas about how to succeed in your studies and extend your learning and discovery far beyond the course you've chosen to study. For more, check out our interactive workshops, book a one-to-one session for personalised study advice, find out everything else at lse.ac.uk/lselife or contact us at lselife@lse.ac.uk.

LSE LIFE is the place to come to develop the skills and ideas you'll need to reach your goals at LSE.

But what do you want to learn to do better?
What are your goals?

Say hello and introduce yourself.

Have a look at the red and blue icons together – and pick one that is a priority for you. Tell the others what it is and why it's important to you.

What do you want to learn to do better while you're at LSE?

Thinking about being an LSE student,
What are you looking forward to in the first few weeks?
What are you concerned about in the first few weeks?
