

Offer Holder News

March 2022

View previous editions

Dear {!Contact.FirstName},

Welcome to our March newsletter! here we explain the ways in which you can confirm your offer and meet any conditions which have been set. Some of you may have a Conditional offer, with conditions relating to achieving a certain grade on your current degree and/or Summer School or English Language test, and providing documents; whereas some of you may have an Unconditional offer and just need to provide official versions of documents you supplied online with your application. The online application tracker will let you know what it is that you still need to provide to us. When you send your documents, make sure you check our current processing times, so you have an idea of how long it may be before you hear from us.

We hope that you enjoy this month's issue, and look forward to welcoming you later this year.

Kind regards,

Graduate Admissions Office

Official Documents

If your offer is unconditional, you may still be required to supply additional, official, documentation. Any such requirement is stipulated in your offer letter and on the application tracker.

These documents must be received before you will be allowed to register with LSE. Full guidance on what constitutes an "official" document, or how to get a document certified, is detailed on pages 27 to 32 of the Offer Pack.

We recommend sending documents electronically wherever possible, i.e. via an electronic transcript transfer service, such as Digitary, Gradintelligence, eSCRIP-SAFE, Parchment, CHESICC etc. or via an institutional email account (for example results@youruniversity.ac.uk) to graduate.documents@lse.ac.uk.

You can find our Proof of Degree form here.

News from around LSE

Meeting your conditions

If you have received a conditional offer from us, we will need you to provide official proof that you have fulfilled these conditions before you register, and we advise that you act as early as possible to avoid running short of time later in the summer. You also need to have met your conditions before you can apply for a student visa.

If you have received your results and find that they fall just short of meeting your offer condition, still send them to us, as they will be sent to your selector for a final decision.

Degree conditions

If your offer is conditional on obtaining a particular mark in your current degree studies, you need to provide formal certification to prove that you have met the degree condition(s).

You can do this by sending us an official transcript or written statement from your university. You can send this to Graduate Admissions via an electronic transcript transfer service, such as Digitary Gradintelligence, eSCRIP-SAFE, Parchment, CHESICC etc. or via an institutional email account (for example results@youruniversity.ac.uk). The LSE email address to send your results to is graduate.documents@lse.ac.uk.

Check pages 27 to 32 of your Offer pack for full details on what is acceptable evidence.

English language conditions

If you are required to meet an IELTS (or equivalent) score as part of an English language condition, you should arrange to take the test as soon as possible. Once you have your results, please submit them online, including the ID number detailed on your results certificate, or ensure that you tell your provider to allow LSE access to your score. We also accept other tests to meet your English language conditions. Please take a look at our English language entry requirements page for more details.

Please remember that if you require a student visa to study at LSE, you will not be able to apply for this visa until:

- your offer is unconditional
- you have submitted your Financial Undertaking Form

We intend to begin issuing CAS statements from May, so it is in your best interests to send us your documents early to allow sufficient time to receive your CAS and for your local visa office to process your student visa.

Summer School conditions

If you have been set a summer school condition as part of your offer, you should apply to the Summer School via their online form. Results from Summer School are automatically sent to the Graduate Admissions team for your offer to be updated.

To request approval of an alternative programme to meet the summer school condition, please submit details via our Condition waiver form. Your request will be sent to the Academic Selector for their consideration, and you will be notified by email as soon as a decision is made.

Tips for London Life

Many students worry about their finances when embarking on a new programme of study, but there are many ways to save money while you are here in London!

In addition to student discounts at high street shops and cinemas - many will offer this on production of a valid TOTUM card (a discount card recommended by the NUS - National Union of Students) or ISIC card (International Student Identity card), there are many other ways to enjoy all that London has to offer without overspending on your budget.

18+ Student Oyster card

As a student at LSE, you will be eligible for a student Oyster card for travelling by public transport. This helps you save 30% off adult travel cards and bus/tram passes.

Second-hand books

Alpha Books, based on campus, offers a range of discounted and second-hand course books.

Discount voucher sites

Don't forget to follow our social media channels!

Many websites offer discounts for students, including deals on eating out, reduced accommodation and sale items.

Try: studentbeans.com, savethestudent.org, myvouchercodes.com

London discounts

Londoners can enjoy discounts on a range of culture, cuisine and shopping in the city. Check out daily deals websites such as Wowcher, Living Social and Deal Zippy to see offers.

Throwback...

While going through the archives, we came across this picture we wanted to share. This is Tom, with Milo the Harris Hawk, back in November 2017. They were on campus to scare away the pigeons, which are an ever present aspect of London life!
