Your application timeline

You will receive your We will email you for these details to ensure department allocation by our records are up to email by the end of August. Attend the GC welcome Your courses are not date. This is especially presentation, your important if you require guaranteed at this point Bv the 31st Mav department welcome a visa to study with us event and other events September - December around campus Once you have By mid-July Speak to your adviser accepted your offer May/June Officially accept or Indicate your course and begin preparing you can apply for End of September decline vour offer Provide a passport preferences for vour General Course quaranteed LSE Register at LSE in LSE for You scan when prompted department allocations application accommodation You are encouraged to Once your application is Move into university speak with the Dean of complete you will usually receive a decision within the General Course within accommodation your first weeks at LSE seven working days Apply for a John C Submit your Receive an email with your Register for Complete the Financial Phelan scholarship Beginning of October application Undertaking Form (FUF) and Confirmation of Acceptance for courses online Studies number, which you will Data Release Consent form Teaching begins From 1st January By the 1st June need for your visa application Early September Within 30 days of receipt From the end of June Include your statement For courses that are available of academic purpose, and don't require permission, The FUF tells us where to send the You can change two academic you can register in LSE for You invoice for tuition fees. The Data courses within the You won't be able to apply for your references, transcript, which guarantees you a place Release Consent Form allows us to visa before receiving your CAS, but first two weeks of English scores if on the course. Courses that contact your home institution in the you can prepare documents such as term. You can also required/obtained, and require permission will be dealt event of an emergency financial evidence and checking audit lectures from course preferences with once you arrive at LSE other courses during your passport this time