Welcome to LSE

Dear {!Contact.FirstName}!

In this edition of Get Ready for LSE, you'll find information on course selection, Welcome and what we're doing to keep the LSE community safe, as well as part-time job opportunities available to students.

Select your courses

You are now able to select your first-year courses from 7 September.

Check out our online guide and web resources to help you make your choices. You can also attend a Course Selection drop-in session between 8 and 17 September to find out more.

Sign up for the Welcome presentation

The Welcome presentation is an essential part of Welcome at LSE, covering what to expect from your time at the School and how we will support you throughout the year. Sign up for one of the Undergraduate Welcome sessions.

Keeping our community safe on campus

We're focusing on prevention, protection, and minimising the risk on campus and in halls of residence. As such, we will be maintaining certain COVID-secure measures across LSE - which will be reviewed every three weeks, or sooner when necessary, so that we can remain flexible and responsive to the wider situation.

Getting your COVID-19 vaccination on campus

We strongly encourage you to get vaccinated if you can ahead of coming to campus if you haven't yet been double-vaccinated.

LSE has teamed up with St Philips Medical Centre to offer free vaccinations to students.

Free LSE hoodie

A reminder to order your free department-branded LSE hoodie to help you feel part of our community and your department. Make sure you order by 5pm (BST) 10 September for delivery in week 4.

Looking for part-time work?

Interested in documenting your LSE student experience? We're looking for creative and enthusiastic students to become LSE Content Creators and Student Bloggers!

As a Content Creator, you'll be involved in creating vlogs and social media campaigns that depict life at LSE. If you're interested or would like more information, email ard.studentcontentcreators@lse.ac.uk.

As a Student Blogger, you'll be writing for our Students@LSE blog to give prospective students an insight into life at LSE. If you're interested or would like more information, email ard.studentblogs@lse.ac.uk.

Download our app, the Student Hub

Our Student Hub app can help you navigate your day-to-day life at LSE. You can check your timetable, book an office hour with your academic mentor and keep up to date with news and information from your department - all in the Student Hub app.

Rooms available in halls of residence

If you have still not booked a room in a hall of residence, but would like to do so, we still have some rooms available in our undergraduate halls. Please visit our website to find out further information.

Prepare to learn at LSE course

Once you have completed your online pre-enrolment and set up your LSE IT account, you'll be able to access our Prepare to learn at LSE course, to help you get off to a good start and make the most of what LSE has to offer.

Consent training

LSE and the LSE Students' Union aim to create a safe environment for all students by tackling sexual harassment and sexual violence.

LSESU offer online and in-person courses to empower you to make positive decisions about your interactions with others and provide information on where you can get support whilst at LSE.
