

Objectives	Aims
	Increase access to highly selective HEIs including LSE	Raise aspirations, personal and educational, of all involved in the WP programme including key influencers	Support attainment of students in key stages 3-5	Prepare students for the transition into higher education including specifically to UG study at LSE	Promote understanding of, and informed choices about, studying social science subjects
Students are inspired towards pursuing stretching academic and personal goals	Supplementary objective within aim	Core objective within aim	Supplementary objective within aim
Students understand the UK higher education system, the opportunities it offers, and how to inform themselves in order to make decisions	Core objective within aim	Supplementary objective within aim		Supplementary objective within aim
Students understand the behaviours, attitudes and choices that will help them to achieve and progress throughout their own personal educational journey	Core objective within aim		Supplementary objective within aim
Students are motivated to take action that will help them achieve their goals		Core objective within aim	Supplementary objective within aim
Students know more about social science subjects and the ways that these can prepare them for careers and life after university				Supplementary objective within aim	Core objective within aim
Students feel empowered to make and defend decisions about higher education and their future	Supplementary objective within aim			Core objective within aim
Students feel more connected to university and/or LSE and feel they could enjoy many aspects of student life	Core objective within aim
Students improve their confidence in subject knowledge and can see connections between what they learn to other subjects that they study			Core objective within aim
Students recognise and feel confident in their own academic, social and personal abilities		Supplementary objective within aim
Students develop their meta-cognitive skills, love of learning, ability to work independently and other attributes that will support improved attainment			Core objective within aim

 Core objective within aim
 Supplementary objective within aim