

Course information 2020-21

PS3088 Politics and policies of the European Union

General information

COURSE LEVEL: 6

CREDIT: 30

NOTIONAL STUDY TIME: 300 hours

Summary

This course focuses on the political system of the European Union (institutions and decision making processes) and its key policy areas.

Conditions

Prerequisite: If taken as part of a BSc degree, the following course must be passed before this course may be attempted:

- PS1172 Introduction to political science

Aims and objectives

The detailed aims of the course are to:

- provide an introduction to the analytical parameters which shape the processes of European integration
- familiarise students with key events and major treaty developments relating to the EU.
- provide analytical tools and guidelines on how to judge the future of the European project
- analyse internal EU policies and their impact on European, but also non European societies
- focus on the external dimension of EU and its impact on the outside world
- identify potential avenues for the future course of European integration.

Learning outcomes

At the end of this course and having completed the essential reading students should be able to:

- demonstrate a thorough understanding of the European Union, its institutional processes and policies and their impact on European, as well as non-European states and citizens
- demonstrate an understanding of the main political processes of the EU
- assess the present and future processes of European Integration in light of the main theories, models and concepts used in the EU studies
- demonstrate a critical understanding of the EU's key policies and their impact on the outside world

Please consult the current EMFSS Programme Regulations for further information on the availability of a course, where it can be placed on your programme's structure, and other important details.

Essential reading

For full details please refer to the reading list.

Hix, Simon The Political System of the European Union. (London: Macmillan, 2011) third edition [ISBN 978-0230249820]

Nugent, Neill The Government and Politics of the European Union. (London: Macmillan, 2017) eighth edition [ISBN 978-1137454089]

Wallace, Helen and William Wallace (eds) Policy Making in the European Union. (Oxford University Press, 2014) seventh edition [ISBN 978-0199689675]

Assessment

This course is assessed by a three-hour unseen written examination.

Syllabus

Part one:

Introduction

1. Parameters of EU integration
2. Competing theories

Part two:

The political system of the EU

3. The institutions of the EU (the councils, the commission, the parliament, the courts)
4. Policy-making and implementation

Part three:

Internal policies and their impact on EU and the outside world

5. Single market and competition
6. Regional policy and cohesion
7. Common Agricultural Policy
8. Economic and Monetary Union
9. Justice and home affairs

Part four:

The External Dimension of the EU

10. Enlargement
11. Common foreign and security policy
12. Trade and the common commercial policy

Part five: Conclusion

13. The Future of EU integration. Deepening, widening or consolidating?

Please consult the current EMFSS Programme Regulations for further information on the availability of a course, where it can be placed on your programme's structure, and other important details.